

To the right honourable and vertuous Ladie the Lady Frances, Countesse of Hertford , his very good Lady and Miltreffe.

S Christian mode-11 & Itie (right vertuous Ladie) mooned a Gentleman, the frit authour hercof, not onely to conceale his name, but also to cease from fetung afforth any thing in the praisef that, which in dutie descrueth to be commended of every one: So Christian instice and equitie;

The Epiftle

which willeth vs to give to every thing his duc, would not suffer me to let that paffe without some commendation, whereunto Iam notable sufficiently to give any. But confidering, that flightly to commend a thing were the next way to discoment it, except with all it were throwded under the patronage of some great person, and thinking it vnmcet to let that go like an Orpban abroad, which had a father at home, I prefumed to commit vnto your honourable parronage not a bare Lawrell, which of it felfe for the greeneffe (when other be withered) may Meeme to be accepted, but the same decked and adorned with

Dedicarorie,

most spirituall and beautifull bu-Thes, Sor hat as I cannot thinke Wif your L. were presented with a materiall Lawrell (wherein befides naturall greeneffe were but this necessarie vie, that it could " defend you in your garden from the heat of the Sunne) but you would accept; if not of the gift yet of the good will of the giver: So relying my felfe on your accustomed fauour and clemencie, Thope you will affoord fome far Quourable acceptation hereof: For 13 herein is not that greenefle, which confifting of naturall qualities, must then wither when allthings have their ending according to their nature, but the flowithing

The E ittle

greene promifes of the convenant of God, which (as God himselfe) last alwaies immutable and vnchangeable : here are not the beautifull buffies of a materiall & tree, which delight onely the outward fight , but a most familiar? view of God himfelfe in Christ & euen to the delight of the foule, and the inward comfort of the afpirit, which take pleafure onely in heavenly things, withstanding Athe inuations and subtile practiles of Sathan, which daily itriueth against them, to bring them to destruction. To conclude, hereyou are not fhrowdedfrom the heat of the funne, but shall find most coole shade! from He

from the parching heat of finne, from the which, God in this life shield & defend you, & in the l.fe to come graunt you euer-lasting rest.

Your honors most humble and dutifull setuant.

Ichn Wolfe.

ı	13	à
l	1	ì
G	Б	5
Ľ		¢
ı	3	Į
ľ		Š
l	Ł	i
ŀ	μ	ı
B	÷	i
١	146	i
ŀ	4	3
b		ı
i	E	i
ľ	11241	ı
ı	190	í
l	d	ŧ
ı	ä	٠
ы		×

The Epiphanie. Saites at BiiRow, and The trvelfe day. Otherwile tallen A Newyeares day. New yeares day Diberwift. 1 3. The Sanne in Aquarius. nt Salifburie. Chus Baul Dif. Lranf. William. Felie and Jane Baul firdt bete. 14 g relieppien. 15 A Ifdoplemart. Marie mart. gning mart. rchabe mar. Det.of John. Det.of June. Emelle bay. elir pried. Lucian.

16 to Apauelee.
17 c. Dep. of Aucho.
18 d. Philematery.
19 e. Adolfan bishop.
20 f. Fabian and Se.
21 g. Agnes vie.

Dimerice.

Conn of Baul. c Cimoth.biffe.

Chiloffo, botter. Dolicarpe mart.

29 & Chestos.
29 & Calerie biftop.
30 & Partilbe Dutene.
31 c Saturenine.

2 3. Terme begin.

wednelbay, from Chiffmaffe bntill June Therrb. Day, being the connection of Baint Boul. Faires at Granes end, a ton in Popkoire, where is kept a faire enery Duffote, at Churchingford at foothale nort following.

Februarie hath xxviii, dayes.

bilbert confessor Appoline virain Amandns bich. Corothe virgin Dittet. Faff. Agathe virgin Angule birgin Puri of Mary. Blate marty, Daul billjop Pcolaftice

attalfrane billiop Cufrale virgin

Calentine mart. I 4 0 Calentine mart

Che f. Day a faire at Bromlie.

Bathe, at Linne, ar Bickellworth, and at Cheit. Day faires at Maibitone, Budworth.

IO. The funne in Pifces.

Terme ends.

Apon Affwednelday faires at Lich-Ebe riili. being S. Malentines Day, a faire at feurtigam. Shoue Sunday Babin e Julian Suncon marty p Bolleren billiop re Julian birgin on Chaines, at Combeiburie, and at Bal-Matthias apolile. Faires at Benley bp. DESCRIPTION OF COMME Zugutfine bithop pocke.

That it is drawed thinks

D(wall billyon

els lineis www.day.ca.

telieter,at Cammopti,, and at Abing.

Policarpe Faft

Marchic apostic Leir ABartys

Deters chaire

Bilogeo birgin

March hath xxxi.dayes.

Chabbe confell, Ebilan marte. D Daufd biftop. Bartine.

Bhocar and Cul.

Derpetue.

Apoline martys. gapit birgin.

Sregoile bithop. Cheoberemact. Argens propb.

I S'D Longin maripp. 13 b Leobifop. 14 c | Deter matty.

Che liif. Sunday in Lent at the Bount, and at Bobmin in Comwall. Eje v. Sunday in Lent at Grantham, Cittos aitb Clitte at Balifburie,and at Bertford.

II. The Sunnein Aries.

Che rif. Day at Stamfold, and at Eud-

Cherfif. Day at idlie.

Eherr. Day a faire at Durhang.

1.6 c Dukutu marty.
1.7 f Gertude virg.
1.8 g Edward king.
1.9 d Joseph Aba.but.
2.0 b Cuthbert bishop.
2.1 c Benedict abbot.
2.2 c Benedict abbot.
2.3 c Theodore piete.
2.4 f Init. Reg Jacob
2.5 g Annun. of Maric.
2.6 g Caftor mart.
2.7 b Ludger bishop.
2.8 c Dorothemarty.
2.9 d Clitopine.
3.0 c Sabitire bishop.
3.1 g Adelme bishop.

Duthe Bonday before nur Lable bay in Lent at dlichich, at Menball, at Denbigh in allales.

The reb.at Routhampton, at Retoca, fle,at Balben, at great Chart, and all th Lady dales at Huntington. On apivient Sunday at Saffton Offal-

On Balmelundap euen, at Bomfret,

On Beimelunday at Moscetter.

Aprill hath xxx.dayes.

T. g Chevore vitgin
2 A Gary Expitian
3 b prichardbishop
4 c Ambissedichop
5 b gwriein & Abar. T

f Cublenderigin g Deipfemer:

9 - A Perpetinserbiffop thire.

ro c Gathelaake

Du Apoline mar ty.

1.3 e Bother marte. 1.4 f Epburt marter. 1.5 g Dimoundbichop

Ehr v. Day ar Mallingfogo.

The ir. day Bicklefworth, at Billings. Che vif. at Darby.

worth.

Che'r. bay at Cucham in Motefter.

ire.

10. The funne in Taurus,

On tuelbay in Erfer wecke at Beath fle et, at Rochford, at Bitchin,

17 b Anieste bishop 18 c Eleuther bishop 19 d Expurcius con. 20 e Hermogenes 21 g Electishop 22 g Electishop 23 d Seorge marty? 24 b talifeire confest. 25 c Marke Bang. 25 c Marke Bang. 25 c Anieste bishop 25 g Anieste bishop 29 g Elect bishop 29 g Elect bishop

Upon Saint Occiges bay faires at Charing, at Tplwich, at Cammegth, The third funday after Caffer at Louth. The rriftan at B tabford.

Ambill, at Binningham, at Gillogd, at Saint Bouites in Conmall.

25. S.Marke Euangeliff, at Darbie, at Doumowe in Effer.

Che xxvi. Day at Cenberben in Ren.

Ebe iff, bay at Elfoto, at Brampara. at Rone in Rent , at Chenfefold in Glier , at Philip and Iacob, at Rippon, at Berin in D Inn.of the croffe. Connewall at Difeffite in Mintes,at Letfield in Buffolke, at Leiceder, at Diichbill Bobbarnarchbiff. at Stowe the ola, at Reabing, at 3Bai Blackborne in Lancaffire. May hath xxx,daics. Centngham, Sancrace martys. Cictoring mariy. rr e Panceale marty.
rs f Alctopins marry.
rs g Sernacius con.
rs g Boniface mart.
rs 5 S Sophia degiu. I b, Philip and Iacob. Appe of Wirhel. c Arbanafine bitt. Kohn of Beuer. Eren.of Micho. John port latin. e Chiffoper. Corbatne.

art. a.t.it as Mensellen of Beinfen, at Dfor fam, at Ercefter, at Bjablojd, at Rigate, The vii, at Beuerley, at Bemton, at Dre On tabitton euen, at Skiptonin Cra-Du Afcension day at Beweatte, at Dontap in albition weeke at Lamund Du Trinitie funday at Menball, and at Euelbap in Mibitfon weeke at Roch 12. The Sunne in Gemini. B. Ebes at Chappelfrith, forth, and at Canterburie. at Burton, I o c Brandon biftop. I y u Ecant. of Bate. I 8 e Diolcopmanty. e Deliberie mare. 2 A Bernachine. h belene Ducene. 2 0 1. Copatre marty. 38 3 Getmaineb fb. 2 7 g Auguffine con 4 D Juliant begin. g riol Felie Siftop. 29 b Attomede. Betromill

Innuc	Iunne hath xxx, dayes
t. e gelcodeme.	Che ir. Bay at Baibffone in Ment.
A Betroche confe	11. The funne in Cancer.
e Erani, Comend	Eheri. S. Barnabie, the longeft day in the peere, ar Dkingba, at Rewbozoush at Darffeld, acholem Wales.
10 g Cranf. Moldan II a Barnab, apoft.	The trili. at Shietulburle, at Saine Albons.
I.3. c. Antonie con. I.4. d. Ballives con. I.5. e. (Tite modefic	Ele petiti, at Coifiam, at Make. feld, at Colchefter, at Reading, at Bed. ford, at Barnetwell, at Crambrocke,

1 5 c di ice modelle

topb, at Barntwell, at Crambiooke,

Ocrualius marty, Erupecie bilhop 16 c Eranf. Richard

Erant, Comard

Walburge birgin

3 Mane marips

f Iohn Baprift.

25 g Aranfaf Elegie

26 a. John and Baul 27 b Crescens marry 28 c Faft. 29 d Peter and Paul. 30 c Commer Baul.

at Gloceffer, at Lincolne, at Beter bozough at Mindlos, at Bardone, at Lancaffer, at Metcheffer, at wallifar, at Agboine. 24.S. Iohn Baptift. At Colcheffer, at Makeffelb.

The erbitt, at B. Bombs. The rrvit, at folkftone.

29. Peter Apoft at Bubburie, at De. teifelo, at Cloobhuelt,

The st. day at Constitution

1	The state of the s
R	I g Det. John Bap.	63
OF	Mifita.of Bary.	Whe if. Day at Congreton, at Affrica
2	b Erant. Cho. Apo. buberline.	buderline,
0	C Crant, of Mattin.
P	Det.of Beter.	Ebe ti. Day at Bartnie, a boile faire at
•	Joe birg.mart.	7.0.
4	Depo. Grimbal.	12. The Sunnein Leo.
8	Cirill biftop.	_
e	I bit. bretbren mar.	The this at delinchcombe.
9	Dog dayes begin.
9	Raber and felle.	Che tt. bay at Cetbury,at Bo: thhiinm
A	Erant, of Benedi,	12 D Eran, of Benedi, in Chefibire, at Chelmitte,at Arbiinee
*	Difnata marti.	at Baribiough , at alinchefter ann ar
-	14 f Trauff Dimond	Colchener.

Ruffne and Juffi. Arnulph marty). 17 b Arnuthin

Barget birgin.

Bary Bagbalen. ry, ne Chilifam, at Couth, at Linetpoole, at Chiffine virgin. Chichefter, at Alvergam. Loolingres virg.

larnes Apoitle.

anne mo. Dary. Senen fleevers.

felte aub bis fel. Bumlen biftop.

Abbon and De u. 31 b Octman billjep.

26. James Apostle, At S. James beside Biarede birgin, London,at Douer,at Billow,at Ipfwich at Darby, at Boarhampton, at Dubly in Stafforbilire , as Meabing . at Balmibu Ebe erbifi.bay at Canterbury , at Richmond in the Both.at Bounam.

Croth, at new Brainford, at S. Laurence The r. day at Mattham, at Blackmoze, at Broford, at Malton, at hungerford, at at Popte, at Ronmie, at Bewton in Lan-Bentoid, at Botham Church, at Milbi b, On Lammas Day at Kenertham, 6. Ebes ,at Ercefter, at Dunftable, Commence o'August hath xxxi. dayes. by Bodwin Diriact & his fel. Laurence marty, Romaine marip, 15 C affum.of Bary Ciburte marty? finding of Ste. 13 A Ppolite birgin Breenhen biftop Fran of Jelus. Erant, Chris duffine prieft Feffum niuis Clare virgin c Laumas Day

Deta, Caurence 16 D Rochematty

f Bagnus marty, Barnard confest.

L Dog daies end

Lewes marty,

C Deta affaunp.

Bartholom, apolt. Cindely Faft.

f Cews king

Alauguft ne con. g & ruerine

Ruffie marty

o felte and Abacte

e Eithberd birgin

13. The Sunnein Virgo.

Chern. Day at Carlife at Dunnote in Effer, at Peten, at Makeflela thetwo Lady Daies.

20. Dog daies end.

24 Bartholomevv apoft, Ar London, at befibre Rie,ar Bunburie,at Bogwirb, at b Nob 's beheading. Routhaileton, at Douer, at Kie, at Dom-Ceukibarp, at geatwitch, at Beggers bulh Ehe erbii at Anford.

September hath xxx, dayes

f Siles biftop.

Tranf. of Cuthere Anthonie mart. Bertine abbot. Luper bichop.

Enurcins biflop. Eugenie confell. Cati. of Bary.

Bosthy & Jacint. Golgony mart. Bartiman.

Siluius bilipop.

Doly Rood. Amanti.

Chet, bay in G. Gileg in the buth.

Gilbozough , at Partnie three Laby Daies , at Blackbozne Gilboznein Dozk Ebe bif. bay at Makefield, at Stur. biloge, at Bouthwarke, at Buide, at Me culuer, at Reugh both the Laby Daite, fire, at Challon, Ebe rilli. Day, being boly Roobe Day, Bebfoid, at Croiven, at Sittingboine, at Coime & Damia. 29. Michael archangel, At Canterbir Eruperie ibifhop, rie, at Blackboine, at dleftehefter, at Cocboile faire, at dilaltan abbey, at Chefter. at Richmondin Pankinire, at Rippon Matthewy apoft. At Warlbogough; 14. The Sunne in Libra, Cip? an and Juft. Douce, at Shietulhury. kermouth, at Leiceller. Mattheyy apolile, Andochius matt. e Eruperie ibithop. Alcter & Cozon. Januarie mart. 17 & Cimotheus. firmin bidgop, Tecla birgin. 30 | g Jeron piteft. Bauricing. Faft.

October hath xxxi. dayes.

The vi. day at Bo. Fatthe belides Rop. Ehe fill. Dap at Befelget. Charing, at Roifton. wiely, at maideffante. Bichafing biftop. apolonaris mart. Deny re & bis fe!. A Remigius bittop b & codagare mart. Warrie g Marc. Candidie ingtpi francis marty, Cinus confellor Belagibirgin Faith virgin Geriants Ebeviff. Day at Darnoid, at Derbiongli, On D. Comarde Day at Granes end, at Barififeld, at Wimblop, at Coltheller, ac I 4. The Sunnein Scorpio. and at Biffop Stapford.

I 8. Luke Baang. at Grelp,at ettife-ford, at Eilbale, at Briogenotth, at Brankle, at Chan, at Chirif, at Frifwibes fn Dr carifeine bigop Eran Co.king 15 a Calirebifop Trans of Offine ten. at

Auftrebette bir. | Gew Barket, at Bertfold, at Ciceter, at 16 b Ecoffen Migop at Burton bpon Erent, at Charlton, at 17 c Beithael of themo deligan in lancachire, at Colline Cales. Eherri. Day at Saffron allalben, at On all Baints euen ar Wabenelle, at Btokeiley. Richen, f feibelwide viegi Crifpin and Cref. b Germane confest. Baglozy biffop 29 3 Simon and Iude Et 9B. bligines Romaine biffion e Cthelbiebe vir. Bary Salome

1	1.		Ivouember nath xxx, dayes.
-	E	f D All faints.	All Saints.
*	-	e All Soules.
*	t	attenefriebe birg.	Ebell, day at Blechingly, at Ringkone
4	5	g Amantius.	and at Barffelb.
5	œ.	M'Lete ppieft.
9	4	Leonary.	Chebt bay, being S. Lecnards Day, a
1	0	Milbioane.	Balfogth,at Btanly, at Eregnie,at Betw
00	P	D'foure crowned.	port pond.
6	-	e Cheoboge.
10	-	10 f Bartine.	Eber. Day Lentom.
II	-	Bartine bifbop.
12	d	Bife biffep.
13	2	13 b Daterue marty.	13. The funne in fagittarius.
14	-	Crant, Grkneto.
15	A	Macite biffop.

-4

Ebe riif. Day at S. Comonds burie, at Elje er. Day being B. Comonbs pay, 30. Andrevy apostile. At Collingto. benbean, at Bewoly, at Beologu in Dorkrough, at Rocheffer, at Beterffeld, at geal-Eherbli. Day at Low, at Dine. Ebe extiti. Day at Bandwich. The rir. bay at Dogiff im. at Dytch, at Angerffone. 16 e Dep.of Edmond. The Ing. of Hot. 17 f Init.gegni. Elizab. Giffotd. 18 g Oct. Bartine. Grilogon marty. 30 c Andrevvapoftle. Cligabeth marty). Clement martys. Cirales confeff. Kacherine virg. Comond king. Dref of Mary. Rufus martyl. Line marty. Cicely birg.

December hath xxxi daics,

2 Dep. of Dimond b Barbara virgin Lypzian bichop Conc. of ABary Difficolas biffion Enlalie virgin Libane marty, Deca. Andrew f E Dlegte biffyep Sabba biftop Intippe

Che b. Day a faire at Diucklie.

Che bi bay at Spalbing, at Arnebale, at Binock, at Eretter, at foottbuich in Cheitire,

The vii. Day at Sandburff.

Ebe bill. Day, being the conception of the Clirgine Parp, at Clieberallin Lancathire, and at Malpas in Cheffire:

Damafe confeff:

Melcaffus virgtn

Lucie vergin

14 e Meleafins viegt

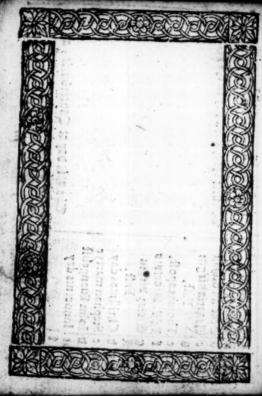

. Caminormile.

16 g D Saplentia 13. The 17 g Lazacus centest.
18 b Gracian bithop
20 c Acactan bithop
21 c Thomas apost.
22 f FFF. Spartyis
23 g Altero biegin
24 d Fast.
25 b Christmas day
26 c Scephan martyr
27 b Iohn Euangelist
28 c Innocents day
29 c Ecanlof James Wiburie.
30 g Eranlof James Wiburie.
31 g Siluester mast.

1 3. The Sunne in Capricornus.

S. Lucie the chettelt day in the perre.

The trip Day at Canterburie, at Sa.

A beautifull Baybush.

A prayer for morning,

Of grations God g deare Father, we yield unto thee from the bottome of our barts most humble thankes, in that it hath pleased thee not onely to desend and preserve us this night from all our enemies both ghostly and bodily but also of thy fatherity pittie to give but of the so over earthly and languishing bodies such sufficient sleepe and rest, as hath satisfied the earnest desire of our weake and seedle nature. And as though the mercie hast safely brought bsto the beginning ofthis piefent day, and thewed be the light thereof : fo wee humbly befeech thee (D Och) graunt that oural foules may be fpiritually lighte-162 ned with the batghtnelle of thy word and lacred milleries , wher by we may walke in the fleps of Christianitie, a lead a life agreea ble to our bocation in Chail Je. fus our Lozd. Allit bs allo with thy grace and holy fpirit D God that we may neuer fpinke from thee for any earthly torments, but billigently applie our felues & to the performance of the will. and gine our felues wholy there. bnto, bauing aftrong and feb. fallfaith in the truth of thy proBaybush, miles. Indue be with wilebome from abone, that wee may ballyil increale in the fulnelle of our fautour Chift . Bebolde us with the epe of thy mercy, and bouch. fafe to Defendbs that commit our IC felues wholly buto thee both now and euermore. Giue bito usaheart alwates affected to bonot thee, a mind ener meditating of thy righteoulnelle, and afpirit burning with zeale of the wear thip, that wee may warily fland upon our guard, and nener yell (0) to the trecherie of the abuerlarie: Bleffe and profper our enterprifes D Lord, that whatforner well take in hand, we may by thy dialf rection bring it to good fucceffe,

A beautifull

CI 1

aut

A beautifull

and enermoze praise thy holy name for thy gratious assistance and fingular goodnes: grant this D father for Jesus Chist his lake our only fautour and redormer.

An Euening prayer.

Dod God the creates and a maker of all mankind, leeding it hath pleased theof the deutine providence, to ordaine the night as a meane to deliver be from the travailes of the day, and to minister ease and gladnes to the wearied sims of our bodies, to the great comfort and refreshing of the same, by the fruition

Baybush.

tion of quiet fleep and reft sccoz-Ding to humane nature, wee tefeech thee theufoze D Lord of the bufpeakeable goodnegand mercy. to be our watchmanand befender this night, that we be not ouer. (C come by fantaftes, breames,or p. ther illusions : but that through thy permillion, we may take fuch quiet reffand boluntarie fleene! as nature requireth, and though our groffe fences are at fuch times flopped, pet bouchfafe euer to grannt be the affiftance of thy grace and holy (pirit, that our foutes may respect the comming of thy fonne our fautour Jel fus Chiff, that at what time C foener he calleth , wee man bee found

found watchfall , and continua !ly ready to performe bis will, that after this life ended, we may eternally reft in glozie: and as the brightnelle of the funne beth fin the morning difperfethe Darke cloubes and thicke miftes from the face of the earth, whereby the fame was before conered with barkenelle : fo wee humbly befrech thee vouchfate to bifperfe and burte our finnes (in the blend and obedience of thy peare fonne) which boe ag it were tha- fo bow bs frem the bright beames of thy fauourable countenance, and enermoze allift be with thy gratious goodneffe, that our fleepe may be fo healthfull bnto

Baybush

us, that we with willing minds arifing in the mouning, map btterip fake off al maner of dieb. fineffe, and make hatt to erercife our feines in fuch Chriffian labonts. as the denine pronibence Mi hath ordained by unto, to the abuancement and renowne of thy hely name, credit of thy Church, comfort a reliefe of our Chaffti. an bretheren, and our cuerlafting Caluation. In mercy graunt this D Lord we befeech thee for Te.A fus Chift his fake, our onelpre-Deemer and faufour, buto whem with thee and the holy Shoft, be! all power and dominionfor ener. No Amen.

C 4 Twenty

Twentie and one godly and necessary praiers, gathered out of the Cxix. P (alme, wherein are contained petitions, crauing aid of Gods spirit against Sathan and al wickednesse: complaints against the rage of the yngodly: thanksgiving frour deliverance and consolation in adversitie, for that God both can and will assist his people.

I. A prayer

Bay bush,

1. A Prayer for the affishance of Gods holy spirit forto direct our mindes after his holy lawes.

Ratious God, so blesse me feruant, that out of the his den treasures of thy word, I may gathersuch fruitsul delights that I may walk uprightly, and lead a blamelesse life in thy sight, in keeping those precepts which thou D Lord God hast therein appointed. Dhow tessed are thase which observe thy statutes which the cid, seeking thre with a pure heart, and carefully obeying

ing the eternall maieffie: may it pleafe thee therefore fo to enibe my wates, that I qualle not in my courfe, neither bend my feife to follow after unrighte onfneffe, ff but faithfully perfener in that perfect path which thou haft en= clined me buto, out ofthy holy word : and thou being arighteousand enerlafting Cob, boett not command me to followe any thing which is not lawfull in thy fight, not redounding to my laluation. Grect my heart continu. ally to the contemplation of thy bleffentawes, whereby my Dealings may be orbered throngh thy gouernance, that I may himmitate and carefully heepe the Baybush. fame all the paies of my life, with A seale and obedience towards thy Diuine maieffie, then fall all things according to the will, goe well with me, and I fall turne mine eics to beholde that thing, which is good and laudable in thy fight, yea and enermoze wop thip thee with an bpright minde, inspirit and truth as becommeth thy chilo, without all diffimulati on and hipocrifie, Lozd I am fully purposed to keepe thy farntes e uen by the Direction of the fpirit, for my truft re-Atth in thee.

I. A

2. A prayer to withstand the frailty of flesh, & cleaue vnto the Lord.

Duerne and birect mee D Lord, according to the worde, that I may order my life by the rule therof, and by the direction of thy holy fpirit, offigently observe those thinges which thou halt commanded me: Thane Cought thee D Cop with my whole heart, let me not therfore goe aftray fcom thee. And though by frailety of my fleth I haue bnabutlebly heretofoze falle from thee , pet I befrech the of thy endlelle mercy, flay me that 3

Baybush benot caft powne for ener, and quicken me that I wander not! any longer from thy precenter bnite my minte to thy facred mifteries, that I may lay by thine! enerialting promifes in my bart, To leaft through the vaine entifements of my ghoffly enemies, 3 be enforced to forget a negligent ly (for mant thereof) to offend thy pinine maleftie : for er cept thou D Lord which art altoge ther mercy, boff guide and teach ! mee to leabe my life aright, Il truelp my weakenelle would not permit mee to toy, opprenaile in that which is good: teach mel therefore D Lord zealouffy to keepe thy flatutes, that I may boldly speake to the land a praise of thy name, and openly showe south thy holy word and blessed will, graunt that I may take more delight in the keeping of thy exhortations and command ments, then in all maner of earthly treasures, and may meditate continually in thy precepts: endue me with heavenly wisedome that I may understand thy lawes aright, and be evermore occupied therin unto my lines end Amen.

3. Aprayer to beguided in all puritie and godlinesse,

Glue eare I most humbly be-fi feech thee D Lozd, buto the Baybush. prayers that I offer beere bato thy neuine maieftie. Continue! thy fauour towards me, in birec. ting me with thy holy fpirit, that I may onercome that which fanourethofenil, and imbrace thole things which thou heft comman = 1 beb. Abandon from the eies of my foule, the bale of parknelle, that I may biew and beholde the true light, and fee the wonderfull fecrets which enermoze fbine out of thy beauenly doctrine, and lead my life in quietnelle, to thy honoz and glorie. Thou knoweft that I am affranger, and bnac. quainted on the earth, and that 3 belire to be brought to another place, enento thy beauenly hahitation:

bitation: wherfore I beleeth the D God encline thine eare towards me, bide not from me thy Catutes, neither pet take the holy fpirit from me, that thould leade me to imbrace thy righteoufneffe. [() Jam bellrous with great care to live acording to thy lawes and to keepe thine ordinance, both in profperitie & aduerfity, wherfore D Lord I beierch thee, let this # seale confumeme, Chou rebukent and bettroyell the vious persons and fuch as flubboanely frine a. (D gainft thee, and appointeft be-Aruction and bitterneffe bnto those that refuse to keepe thy procepts. Though all men ennie me, and haue me in Delpight for ff

Baybush, 9
the truthes sake, yet thou in the good time wilt remove them far from me, because I the humble fernant deeput my trust in thee,
let my mind a heart be enermore occupied in meditating on the sta tutes, fortherein is my delight.

4. A prayer in affliction.

Dod God of thy infinite mercie, I befeeche thee poure upon me the oyle of thy grace, whole some is grie, would to mente with daily affictions, for I am like one without life, and fakened to the sepulche, but my trust is in thee D my good God, that thou wilt as the fift me in my necessitie, and re-Rose me thy poore feoment buto life againe, that I may land and ? praile thy holy name euen in the middeft of thecongregation, for ! euerand euer. Quicken mee 316 fay according to thy werd, I will open bnto thee my complaints: gine eare therefore unto me, and Mill encourage me in the way of ite thy truth, and trach methy fatutes. Enflame my heart withthe lone of thy wifebome, a raife me by that am now fallen, for my foule melteth away for very beat uinelle, Erempt from me what . foeuer may withbraw me from thylawes, and grauntthat I may continue in that good way

Baybush . which thou halt impginted in my heart . Sine unto me I befeechil thee a willing and zealous minn, to cleane falt bnto thoie thinges! which are approoned by the tellimonies, and that I neuer Grink [C from thee, fo fall I not be confounded : Date me out of the draights of fin, into the entbent and broad place of righteonines that I may finith the whole! courle of my life by the inflinct 3 direction of the holy fpiett, and this life beingended, I mapfogl ener entow the eternal faluation, through my Lord and laufor Thill Jelus.

A beautifull 5. A prayer against the affaults of Sathan.

Clibe me D Lozdin the way of thy facutes, that I may euer ogber my life a'. cording to the rule thereof by the prouident direction of thy holy fpfrit, without the which my inlufficiencie hall notbe once a ble to performe the fame in thy fight : and euermoze affift mee with the knowledge o'the word, that I may fully with underflanding obferne and keepe the fame with my whole heart. Infruct medaily D God, that am now entred into the way of thy precepts, quench in my minde the Defire If

Bay bush. Befire of filthie lucre, couetouf. nes & viurie, which wonie braw me to all finne and iniquitte, and incline my heart to those things that may please thee belt, that IN imbracing the lame fincerly, may & fructeffe in good workes a new. neffe of life, to the glozie. D mp good God, keepe backe mine eies that they bee not Deceined with the enticing hewes of lewo bauties, that would withdraw me from the bright beames of thy incomparable maieftierleade me IC D Lord into the true life, that. 34 may zealoufly followe thee my guide, confirme meinthy truth as then but promifed turne a. A way reproche and thame from me, because I feare and lone thy sudgements, a I desire nothing more then the encrease of thy grace, and the keeping of thy commaundements take me therfore D Lozd, and keepe me both now and enermore, that I never have occasion to sin against thee, but that I may this trust, and excess to be desended from all dangers.

6. Apraier for perfeuerance in the right way of godlinesse.

Mard me on enery fide D Lord with thy loning kindnes and omnipotent power and

Baybush. and graunt mee the faluation, wherby I may be befended from al my enemies, and beable to an-Iwere them in thee my laulot, for I doe wholy depend byon thy wordes: let me not be affaulted with deadly inturies, neither let mein my afflictions bebnpati . ent: let not the truth of thy holy worde be taken or eftranged fromme , but let my mouth fill fet foath thy glozie: quicken mee therefore in thy tame, for 3 doe wait for thy indgements byon

the ungodly, and I will keepe the doctrine which thou hast given men mee for ever and ever, and walke at liberty with a quiet winde, because thou hast indued

me

me with a belire to thy comman. dements, graunt that I neuer theinke from thy truth, but with all boldenesoffpfrit endeucz my felfe to befpute of thofe thinges that concerne thy law, eurn before the mighty princes of the earth: let my whole belight be in thy precepts D Lord, which i are moft beare buto me, and en. 16 create my zeale in thy worde for Thane loued it with my whole heart aboutall earthly felicity. 3 will life bp my hands buto thee, and before theface will I prefent my felfe, befeeching the to endue me with thy grace and holy fpirit, that I may walke in thy fight according to the preBaybush. 13
scribed rule of thy precepts that thou has shewed me, and size my whole delight & comfort for ever in meditating voon thy statutes, D Goothat linest for ever.

7. A prayer for pacient abiding

7. A prayer for pacient abiding Gods good pleasure.

Rannt that I by experience may perceive that thou art minoeful D Gov
of those thinges which thou hak spoken but o methy sevuant, and voest command meto trust in: for in al my miseries this is my stedsast comfort, that thou wist in thy good time both helpe and suctourthy teruant that trusteth in thee

thee, for though the prowd and Mbngodly perlon haueme in Derie fion for thy names fake, yet will I euer bepend boon thy holv word, for thy promifes haue quickned mec, and when I think !! upon the mercies which thou haft hewed buto me, in punithing them according to their De. ferte. F am indurd with great lie comfort : thou ka oweft D God! what feare inclofeth me, when I teare the wicked blafibeme !! thy holy name, and forfake thy # Q Dinine precepts, bring by thy fpfritenformed ofthe euilethat! hang ouer theirheads . Let thy Attetes Lord be my belight, that ill @ during the time of my wearie

Bay bush, pfigrimage in this earthip ta. bernacle, 3 may neuer ceale to il found the praises with scalous; harmonie, but fet my whole care in the commemoration and cal. ling bpon thy holy name, and watchfully thinke how I may behaue my felfe to keepe top! lawes: for at midnight have I erected my minde buto thee, and have not regled at all times to poute out my prafers before thee, the which thy fpirit had motiened me buto, because I haue alwaies had an especiall care to keepe the precepts which

thou hall appoin-

8 A

8 A consolation that God hath holpen vs, and a prayer for his grace so to continue.

Dod God, theu art my postion, and the expected land of my inberitante, graunt therefore that I may have the word to direct me, and when I poure foorth my praiers before thee, with fpeed I befeech thee give gare buto me a bouch. fafe to affift mee with the halte fpirit, and according to thy promifes (bower toto thy fer. uants) haue mercie upon me: let me nothe enclined at any time, to forget thy goodnes, but conti.

Baybush, nually quicken mee in thy truth and graunt mee D Lozd God fucban understanding hart,that I never fwarue from the tefti. monies, but endrugue my felfe with all speede to the keeping of thy commaundements: infruct me continually more and more, and befend me from the noisome fnares of the wicken that confpire againft me, and intend to fuppeffe in mee the good blif. fings which thou haft lent mee. At midnight will Trife to giue! thankes buto thee incommemus ration of thy greatkingnelle thewed unto me, and with true seale will I frequent thytemple, to praise thee for thine aboun bant graces extended buto me, for thou of thy mercy hast bleffer me in all my dooings, belived too me out of troubles and entring more defended me from mine ene mies. Let me put no trust in the ungody, but let me foyne with such as feare thee, and have a loud to thy statutes: the earth D Lord is replenished with thy endlesse mercy, D teach me thy lawes wherein I ought to walke.

9. An acknowledgement of Gods mercy, and that by affliction man is taught true wisedome.

GRatiously in mercie hast thou dealt with me thy poose obe-

Ba, bush Dient fernant, according to thy worde, pet further I defire thee! D Lorde, that thou wouldett teach mee that true and fincere! knowledge forned with fungement, that I may Difcerne all ff thinges aright, as it were by ta-Ring a fauozie thing: for bppon thy commaundements boe 3 De. pend. Before I was tamed by 3 the rificacie of thy rod, I wans Died to and fro, but now am 3 quickned and haue learned therbyto obey thy commaund ements: 10 he gratious bnto mee D Lozd, and teach me thy flatutes. The ungodly haue enerpractifed mif chiefe againft me, but bane fai- Il led, for that I endeusied mpfelf to keep thycommadem rnts, and they thus neglecting their cal lings aud being puffed by with the baine eftimation of them. felues, are become bull and foo-Iff, but in thy law is my whole belight, and therein wil I meditate all the Day long. It was therefore for my commoditie that h thou bioft chaften me, for that 3 sealoudy do learne to immitate & thy flatutes, for the doctrine and precepts that thou haft by thine owne mouth renealed before the face of the prople, and belinered bntome, is of moze eftimation then the fineft pearle,oz greateft beaues of golde. Therefore D Lord, birect me thy poore feruant,

Baybush. 17 nant, with thy holy spirit, that this thy sacred word may be so firmely and effectually grafted in my heart, that I may cleave onto thee so, ever-

10. A prayer to be strengthned in well doing.

Jue buto mee that am the worke of thy hands, I befeech thee, O God, such underfanding, and so continue thy fanourable mercies daily towards thy fernant, that I may learne thy commandements, so hall st come to passe, that all they which feare thee, shall resource at my state, and give due thankes buto

thee that halt in mercie bouchfa. feb to preferue me who hane al. wafes truffed in thee: and by er. perience I finde, thatthou, D Lord, Boeft nothing bniuftly in billting my effences with the fcourges, for theindgements are bugight and nothing repugnant to thy truth , but let thy mercle !! beener ready to comfort me ac- 180 cording to the promifes : let the endlelle mercie be ener prefent, that my fpirit may be reniner, and that I neuer faint bn berthy fatherly hand, focing that thy Doc A trine both euermoze belight me and that therein is my continua I erercife . Let the ungodly be a: 10 hamed and altogether fruftrate

Baybush ; of their intent, who beale fromardly with thy fernant, and pre-IC tend the ruine of my seale, and let me fafely meditate on the commaundements, that all fuch as feare and lone thee bufainenly, may be comforted by my erample . Catherefore I bumbly befrech thee, D Bab, increase my knowledge in thy flatntes, that I mny keepe the fame with a pure and boright beart to my Coules health : and graunt, D my good God, that I neuer bell afhames ofthy eternall truth. but that I may perle. nere eberin bato the end.

Œ2

A beautifull 11. A lamentable petition for aid in meere distresse.

Goneis my arength D Lord. and my foule fainteth becaufe ! of the faluation, which I baile ! erpect, yet will I fill wait for my beliuerance, because of thy! promife graunted unto me out of thy facred word : yea, mine eves IC Do faile mee for the long looking after those thinges which thou! halt fpoken buto me, and I Doe !! quaile bnber my heaup burchen: (To Jam conftrained ofcen rimes to erpreffe my mifery in thele wordes: Alas, alas, cahy boeff thou not quickely come and comfort met 3 am like a battle Delen Baybush. dried in the (moake, for very heauineffe and angniff of my loule, yet doe I not forget thy enerla. Aing promifes and fatutes:how long hall my griefe endure? And when thall the forrowfull vaies of thy feruant ceafe ? Shall not thy punifiments proceed against them that perfecute mee : The enemies of my foule bigge pittes (and lay fnares for me, contrarie tothylaw. All thy precepts D Lord, aretrue, though the wic. ked intheir furie boe perfecute me, and goe aboue toleke the Decay of my zeale. Catherefore, D Logo. in thy good time belpe me that buwogthily am oppreffen, and although they have call mee Downe nowne and almost blought me to mought, yet have I not folken thy precepts: erect and restore me to life, D my good God, even for the singular lone that thou bearest but of the servents, that I may observe the thinges that thou has appointed me out of thy holy worde, and carefully keepe them for evernore. Graunt this, D Father, for Ielus Christ his sake our onely Sautour and redeemer. Amen.

12. An extolling of Godsvnfpeakeablegoodneffe, with thankfgiuing for his mercie shewed.

Cood 3

Baybush.

20

Don God, why fhould I feeme to boubt of the cer. tentie of thy promiles, feeingthou art altogether righte. onineffe, and thy word doth en-N bure for euer in heauen? Dea,thy (C truth I know affuredly fhail neuer faile in any age, feg the bery baby of the earth both to abide. as it was established by the migh tie band of the power upon her foundation: a allotherthings, D Lozd, de fo continue & entrently stand as they were or bained with if thee from the beginning, both in qualitie and effate, obeying the as their Loid, Row therefore Di God, gine me an bnberftanbing heart, that I may fatthfuily lene!

and obey thee, for except I had trufted in thee, and had a belight in thy law, I had been ennironed with defiruction in my troubles being plung ed in the net of calamities. Let me not therefore, D Lord, forget thy eternal precepts for in obierning of them, 3 am reftoren to life. Saue methere. fore, for 3 am thine, and make me perfect inthy flatutes, lo thall I ftill meditate inthy precepts, and with zeale feeke and love thy commaundements: though the wicked got about to beffroy my foule, pet doe I peelde my minde to be occupied in thy ftarutes, for I fee that allthinges beere on carth, be they never to perfect

Baybush, 21 and absolute, are brought to an end: neverthelesse the precepts and holy word are prolonged without measure, and endure for ener and ener, worlds without and. Amen.

13. A worthy meditation and ioyfulnes for receiving true vnderstanding.

CReat is my lone but o the facted words of thy mouth, D Lord, yea I consume whole daies in meditating byon the same, and I doe sind by experience, that I have not done this in baine, seeing that by thy precepts I have proved to be much wifer then all my my aduerfaries, yea and thou D Himp God, baft ginen me an bnderstanding heart, in feeling thy goodneffe towards me, and euer making the tellimenies the me-Ditation, yeathou haft quickned me and made me more fatifull then the grane men of underftanbing, because I was bent to knowe the precepts, and incitned to keepe them indeedz, fo 2 3 held backe my fecte from enery enill way, that I might tread the & path which thou halt now alreadie declared buto me out of the trealities of thy eternall teas! ment. Strengthen me D Loid, that I curne not from thy lawes, butthat I may meditate therein

Baybush.

night and bay to my incompara. ble comfort, whereby through thy Direction I map zealoufly perfeuere in the knowledge of thee. and evermore abide conftant infl thy truth to my eternall faluati. on: let me be occupied continual. ly in thy worde, for I feele the fame to be an cuertafting cemfort to my foule, and of more le fweetneffe then if I hab tafteb of hony, and by obternation of thy precepts haue I gotten wilhome, and therfore I do btterly abhorre the entifing fhewes of world= ly vanities, which are nothing but falls hood.

14.A

14. A prayer for Zeale and conitancy.

GRaunt I befeech thee, most mercifull God, that thy holy word opening & bilperfing the backfome clouds of my mind, may beclare fuch light bato my fostfteps, that all my waits may be fafely guided, according to the fincerity of thy lawes: and let this light D Lord, lo illuminate my beart and underftanding, that I may by a folemne bow binde mpfelfe for ener unto thee, and obteine abilitie from thee with all humillitie and quietnes of life | C to performe the fame that I have ! promiled

Baybush promifed bnto thee. Thou feent D Lord how fore I am afflieren and vered on enery fide, wherefore faue me and quicken me according to the eternaliberity:accept the prayers and bowes of my mouth that I now offer unto thee, and teach me thy ftatutes more and more: and crtend the mercice, D Lozo, unto my mife. rieg, for my life is laid open to all troubles and banger, as though I Did cary it in my band, but let & not the fame, D God, pullbackell my zeale from thy law . The wicked baue imagined Deceit againft me, yet will 3 not wander from thy precepts. Bleffe me I beleech thee D Beare father, with the grace, that I make no extimation of worldly thinges, but that I may accept thy testimonies as mine inheritance forener, for they are the toy of my heart: instruct me to apply my minde for ener. enen to my last gaspe, to observe thy statutes. Amen.

15. A prayer to flie worldly va nities, and to delight in godlinesse.

GRant I befeech thee, D God, that I may have the vaine insurantious of such as wander from thy truth, and account thy doctrine most bear vato my soule Be thou (most mercifull Loyd)

Baybush myrefuge and field whereunto immy grienous biffreffe and banuger I may alwafes flie for fuccour. Let the word D Godbe mptruft vnto the end, and banith the wicked out of my company, that I may enermore beene thy precepts more purely. Cablet and quickenme, D Lord, accop-Ding to thy promife, that I may be bpholden leaft 3 perift : let me notbe bifappointed of my erpectation, but frengthen me in (thy good time, I mod entirely befeech thee, and holde me by with thy mercifull band both now and euer, that I being fafe, map Delight continually in thy eternally flacutes: let the crafty practices of them that contemne thy lawe, be brought to naught, and take a. 10 way the wicked that infect the people, euen as Broffe with the! pure mettall, that my zeale in thy tellimonies may be full. Eby !! indgements D Lord are of fuch power, that they not onely teach me obedience, but canfe me to feare, confidering mine owne weakenelle,therebyenclining me to repentance and amendment of life, for the which D Lord, Tthy pore fernant bo renderbnto the 18 most humble and hearty thanks, befeeching thee fil to increase my knowledge in thy facreb mifterfes.

Amen.

Baybush. 25
16. A prayer to deale vprightly and not to be put to shame
by the vngodly.

God God, in thy great mer-I oppzelleno man with bn. righteous indgement, but that I may beale tuftly and truely with all men futhy fight, that I be not ! flaundered of mine enemies, netther brought to open hame. Al. fift me DLozd with thy power, & fand on my five against the bugodly, that then triumph not o. uer me, for my berie eyes do faile me in waiting for my Delinerace, and my Arength qualleth inerpecting the promiles, beale not with methy bnwoathte fernant according to my Deferts , but of thy endleffe mercie teach me the Catutes, for thou art my eternall Lord, and I am thy feruant, graunt therefore that I neuer Cwarue from thee, but that 3 map know thy will, and faith. Mully imbrace thy tellimonies. Man the good time arife, D Lord, To and beltroy the wicken that goe's about to bying thy lawes late btter ruine and decay, and pretend the confusion of my zeale, for 3 will lone and firmely cleave to thy precepts, about all treafure and fine gold: yea, and my whole belight fall be therein for ener : For I know that the commanndements

Baybush. 26' dements are altogether equities and truth it selfe, yea and a certaine rule for me to trust buto, therefore do I abhore what seem uer distenteth from the hidden printite of thy word, befeeching thee, D father, sill to increase in methe desire that I have but thy lacred mysteries.

17 A meditation on the excellencie of Gods holy word.

Rations God, thy testimonies containe fied high mysteries, and are of fuch excellencie, that I am mooned with admiration end reurrence, if 2 when

when I doe thinke thereupon. and therfore are they fo precions buto my foule, that it greatly Defireth to imbrace and keepe them about all earthly treasures : for to the entrance into thy holy word is to bnfpeakeable, that it gineth light to them that are indarknes, and intructeth the ample in the knowledge of the will, it Girreth f up quietnes, and moueth peace in conscience: therefore, D Lord graunt me underftanding, and open my mouth, that I may with unfained lippes enermore maile thee, and (wallow thy precepts euen as the thirffy man both earnealy befire to brinke: looke on thy fernant, D Lozd, both now

Baybush and euer, and be mercifull bnto me, as thou vieft to boe buto thy elect & them that love thy name. Direct my pathes, D God, and lead me in the way wherein I ought to walke, that If all not 10 into the fnares that the wicked haue laid to entrap me withall, but zealoully personer in thy commaundements, and let not @ afflictions affault me about my Grength, but beliuer and Defend me from the baites of my enemies, that I may ferne thee: fhine on me with the enerlafting light of the fanourable countenance, and teach me thy fatutes: mine eves guth out with teares, when I Do heare thy enemies, how con temptuoully &

A beautiful l temptuoully they speake and intend to subnert thy law, that endureth for ener.

18. A prayer to beare the crosse of affliction and reproch patiently.

Ded God, then art altoacther find and righteous, and all thy ordinances are truth and equitie: grant that I may observe thy lawes villigently as amost find and perfect rule of thy truth and sincere religion, for thy wordes and sweete promises. D Lord are so toyful wato me, that the love therefuch con
summeme, because the vagodly doe despite

Baybufh befpile thy precents, pet thall thy truth for swermore endure and flouriff in puritie, wherefore ertend thefame buto me, and quicken thy fernant therein for ener. that T may imbrace it with bn. perstanding, and though the wicked therefore hane me in no effimation but account me an abiect ret will I not thereby be erempted from the Audie of thy commaundemente, nor neglect my lo necessary a calling : for thy righ = teoulneile D Gor, is an euerla- 10 Aing righteoulnelle,though other ordinances and lawes which mang wifibome bath fet bownells are lubiect to innumerable changes, and at lengthcome to an end

A beautifull and the seale of the word induceth fuch comfort bute my foule, that in affictions when troubles and anguith oppreffe me. I am buffly occupied in repeating the fame in my fongs: oh how ercellent isthy fweetneffe bnto them that are in miferie, vea thou haft prevaren a bleffed and an euerlatting fountaine in heauen, for them that love thee. Grauntme underfanding therefore, efpecially in thy truth, that I may live with thee for euermore.

19. A prayer for helpe in aduersitie.

Biue

Baybush. uetares Lord I befeth thee, buto the crie andla. mentable boyce of my forrowfull heart, for I have callen unen thee with my whole heart bay and night, graunt that I may billigently observe thy ffa. tutes . and in all my bangers bouchfafe to fend mee thy aide and allifance whereby I may continually be firred bp to me-Ditate on thy tellimonies, let my viaiers heuent the early light of the morning, and in thenightwatches D Lozd quicken my minde with the commemoration of thy goodnes, and hearken bnto my earnest vetitions, acording to thy louing kindenes ertended buto thy thilozen, and as thou haft promifed, relloze me to the intoping of thy fauour, that am without life:thou feelt how neere they allault me which are continually giuen to infquitte, and earnelly bent to deftroy thy teatmonies, praifing thee with their lippes, but inhart, are farre from thee. Bue my truft is onely in thee, D Lord, that thou wilt cleane unto thy fernant, and increafe my zeale moze and moze. Teach mee Theleech thee moft mercifull God , the affired way of the commaundements, for I know certainely, that by the ob-Ceruation of the tellimonies I malnener be in erroz, neither pe: \ fruffratz

Baybush. 30 frustrate of my hope which I have in thy mercy. For thou hast established the same for ener and ener. Heare me, D Lord Sod I most humbly beseach thee, and as sist me enermore with thy grace and holy spirit, that I may rest with thee eternally.

20. A prayer for to be strengthned being weake.

Dod Lord I most humbly am forcoppressed: and in thy good time deliver me which soe not forget the doctrine that thou hastraught me. I appeale for mer cie unto the source igne boun-tie, pleave thoumy caufe therefore and be my Judge and in the good time preferue and befend me : for faluation is farrefrom the vincolly, because they neither & feare thee nos obferue thy Ratutes. I erpect the mercies. D Lord, and not mine owne righteoulneffe to belpe me. Duicken me therefore according to thy judgements, and although they that bniuftly perfecute me, are many in number, and mighty, vet to I incline my heart to the observation of thy teftimonies, and enermore belight inthy precepte, pea I have had fuch a loue to thy law,that I neuer conceined moze griefe of any thing then when I

Baybush. bid enidently perceins thefe men to befuife thy words and neglect thy law, but let thy mercie take hold on me, that haut had my felicitie in thy commaundements, and accounted them moft Deare bnto me: increale my seale D Lozd, and fauemethat I periff not, bouchfafe to affift me with thy perpetuall graces, that I may walke bpiightly before thy presence feruing the continually with feare and reuerence, and efteeming the wordes of thy mouth to be the ordinary meane to bring me bnto faluation. fori they are infallible, and thou haft orpained them to fand for ener: W therefore are they the eternaland

A beautifull unchaungeable rule of thy fustice world without end.

21. A loyfull reckoning vp what fpirituall comfort and how precious weenion by Gods word.

Rations God, the threatenings and iniurious perlecutions of the mightie ones of this world, could not make me once to deny thee, for my heart Acod more in awe of thy most facred worde, then of their indignation; continue fill thy affishance therefore towards me thy poore secuant, that by the vertue of thy holy spirit working

Baybuth. king inmy heart, I may entey and take more delight and comfort in the facred worde (which quickneth mein all troubles)then in all the kingbomes and baine treafures in this world, and that IC I may willingly reject eabhorre all manner of Deceit and wicked= neffe, ener imbracing the mott comfortable tellimenies : for when I doe narrow ly lee into thy indgements & facred mpfteries, how ereellent they are, I am of. ten and fundrietimes enforced to land and praife the boly name: the lone of thy beanenly lawe bringeth into great profperitie all fuch agretaine the fame, for they not scaloully learch out the fecrets

fecrets thereof, and are in their confciences affared that they pleafe thee, therefore graunt D Lord that I may fattbfully beleene in thee, and fill bepend bp-K pon thy faluation : gine me euer 17 patience in my troubles, and let me fill obferue and keepe thy te-Aimonies, and hanca continuall loue thereunto: grannt that 3 may have no respect buto men, but to let thee alwaies before my etes, as the inft Judge of all my boings, Amen,

> A prayer to be kept under the protection of the most highest.

> > Sine

Baybush. Juceare, 3 molt humbly befeech thee, D Goo, unto the complaints of me porce finner, and graunte me the true bnderflanding of thy binine precepts, oh let my fapplications come before the, and fane me D Lord that put my whole truth and confidence in thee, according tothe promife, that I may joyful- 18 ly peelo buto thee buceffant praifeg, and obferue thy ftatutes, (wherein thou haft inftractted) me) with biligence for eu r. Ltt nothing caufe me to quaile, D God, but that the words of my tongue may fet forth the vertibt ind bements and glozy, for thou art my louing God, on whome I

enermore bepend, and my comfort conlifteth in thy paccepts : erece the hand to helpe me poore Ginner , for I haue not neglected thy ftatutes : let my whole life Depend byon thez for euer and let To meleeke comfort at thine onely Doctrine, let my life be prolonged and couered under the thads wof thywings, that I being beliue. redby thee, may render continual thankes buto thee, and zealoully imbrace thy tellimonies; ah alas how have I gone aftrayand wan- I Dettooand fro like a loft Geepe from his fhepheard, being readie to fall into all baungers, and to be denoured of the enemie, but ! of the mercle, D Lord, thou hast called me home who thy speepefoloand restored me againe to the knowledge of thy heavenly doctrine: wherefore D God, so guide me with thy grace, and instruct me with thy holy spirit, that I may continue therein for ever.

Baybush.

A prayer that we may only delight in Gods lawes.

VIth thy grace and holy fpirit affiftme, D. God, that Iwalke not in the steppes of the ungodly, neither followe after their wicked and licentious coun fell: Let me not stand in the water of impudent sinners, neither yet lit or beepe company with fuch as peribe thee and blafpheme the holy name, but graunt, D God, that my whole belight may be fired in the keeping of thy facred lawes, and that my mind may meditate therein night? and bay. Make me, D God, ag a fruitfull tree planted by the water fine, that being alwaies refre- 1600 then with thy grace, I may being forth the fruits of repentance, and Daily proceed in newneffe of life !! to the honour and glore, fo that lo what bufineffe o; affaires foeuer I take in hand, it may profper : but feather thou the bugodly like Michaffe befoge the wind, and let them tremble at the righteons indge-L

Baybush. in ogenients , that they fland not in the affembly of the fuft, forlig thou like a mercifull God wilt allow and maintaine the life of thy children, but the entil life of the wicked thall betterly perlif in thy prefence, yea, and in the end they hall go to beftruction, therfore will I truft in thee for enermoze. A praier for boldnes and courage in standing to the truth. Aile menot, moft mercifull God, for there are many that rife by against me beging my foule continually: yea, they affault me with biners temptations, fap-

ing there is no helpe nor victorie. for him in his God, but vet in the good time thou wilt fend nous rifiment and fuccour bnto thy fernant, and befend me on enery fide from them that cruelly feeke my deftruction, yea thou art my glory, and thou in mercy wilt Ifft mee by when I am fallen, therefore will I fill call bpon the, o Lord, for I know thou wilt heare me out of the eternall tas bernacle, and feeing thou art my good Don, I williay me Downe and reft in peace, and artie again because thou befendeft me:the remembrance of the promifes and trial thereof haue foincreafed my li loue and faith to the that though

Baybush. many thousands pretend my bt. ter onerthiow, vet will I not bell affraid, for thou art the God of my force: come forth therefore, D Lord, and belpe me, and in thy good time beate Downe my ene= 1 mies, and firike them byon the tawes that feeke to Do me enill: treak thou the teeth of the bugod! ly, and confound all fuch as Dai- 160 Ip go about to flaunder me with. out a caufe titis in thee, D Lord to free me from biffreffe, and to peliner me from the fnares of my onviellours, for thy bleffing is bpon thy people, and thou wilt relleue them in their neceffitte : wherefore extend thy mercie to. wards me : and befend me both!

A beautifull now and ener, that Imayy Eld continuall praise for ener.

A praier to be delivered from Gods wrath.

A Glitme, D Lord, with thy grace and holy spirit, and rebuke me not in thine anger, neither chasten me in thy displeasure, but have mercie voon me that am vtterly destitute of Arength and reliefe: heale me D
God, for my soule is grienously vered because of my sinne, and sore haken through mine insquities, my heart sigheth being now touched with the feare of thy sudgements, wherefore incline

Barbush.

thee to helpe me, and faue mefor the mercies fake, for thee that are in the grave cannot praife thee : D Lord, in mourning 3 faint, and in remorte my forrow increafech, I weare away because of the lewones of my agneriaries and am fore bered by reason of the mileries wherewith I pooze! finner am oppreffet, but away from me pee wicked, for the Lord hath heard my voice and wofull trye, yea the Lord hath heard my praier and humble fite, and be in his great mercie will confound my enemies, and fend me reliefel in my greatelt niceffitie, and will put to flight all fuch as worke my decay or ficke to doe me eutil.

TH=

Increase thy lone in me, D Lord, that I may render due thankes with the forthy continual assistance, and praise the name because of thy louing kindenesses wholly upon the merites for ever and ever.

A prayer not to be ouercome of the wicked.

Reard, I mok heartily befeech the, D God, humble peritions and praiers of the fernant, for unto thee alone do I lift up my hart and foule, beleeching thee to extend the mercy and pitie towards me, that have enermore

Bay bush. moze pat my trut g confidence in thee:letnot mine enemiegrefoice oner me, neither luffer me thy fer uant to be put to confuffon, becaufe my hope refleth onely on thy faluation, but evermore retaine me in the faith of thy premifes, that I fwerue not on any Ade, guide my fleps in thy truth, and inftruct me in the rule of thy will, for thou art the Cop frem whom I expect and looke for my Deliuerance : be minbefult oftby mercies which thou haft often hewes buto thy feruants, and of the manifold bemeftes which theu! frem time to time haft Declared unto all ages . Remember not the lew bneffe of my youth, but in thy mercies think bpon thy feruant,inftruct meinthy laws, and teach me to be humble, be merciful to mine iniquities, for they are great, and by the direction of thy holy fpirit conduct mein the right way, that my foule may owell at eale and inherite the land which thou half prepared for them that ferue thee : reneale unto me, D God, the fecrets of the holy word? that I may be enqued with buderfanding: turnethyface bnto me, and extend thy mercie towards me, loke bponmy afflictions, and releafe me of my finnes, and Deliner Ifrael out of all his troubles.

A

Baybush

39

A praier for reliefe in ficknes and anguish of spirit.

Carken buto my humble fuit, Diozo, a in thy mercy gine eare buto my paiers, I boe not here plead for my felfe. neither bo I refule to be reprooued of thee, but beleeching thee not to rebuke and chaftife me in the heat of thy wrath, for thy hand and heanie peake oppzeffeth me, and the fenfe of thine ire worthily kionledagainft me, endnreth fo grienaus bpen me, that my whole bodie confumeth for the aboundance of my wicked offen-17 ces, yea my wounded confcience is ready to putrifie through fin. and I bare not but with beaufe countenance lift by mine eies to. war os thee: my heart and reines Doeburne, D Loid, with intollerable paine, and there is no pare of mo body free from griefe. 3 wholly languith & faintfog bery forrow of mp heart, thou know. eft my belire, D God ,and my fighing is spparant unto the my heart panteth, my ftrength Decayeth, and my epelight now fai= leih me, many there be that feeke To my Bellruction, and there is none to belpe mebut thou alone, wherfore on thee will I waite and abide thy good time for my fuccour,belpe me therefore that now calle h

Baybush 40 scalleth byo thee, left I bebrought into decay: and let not my ghost-ly enemies triumph ones me, who desire to see my onershow. In thee D God have I enertrusted, solake me not therefore, but of thy gracious goodnesse fend me speedie comfort: D mercifull Lord be not far from me in my distresse, but hast theero help me.

A thankfgining for delinerance from tickenefle and pa.ne,

Extend thy grace and holy spirit towards thy secuant, D Lozd, that I may daily magnifie fie thee, for thou art my pelinerer and half not luffered mir foes! with prive to triumph oner me. I cried unto thee in my troubles. and thou like a mercifull Gob Didneft Deliner me, thou haft Defended me from Daungere of beath, and renewed me alwaies with comfort : therefore thall 3 fing praifes buto the divine mas ieftie for ener, thine anger endureth buta while, but thy fanour to the end of our life sand though forrow abiveth in the tuening, vet iov commeth in the mouning, and in my profperitte I faid, Il hall neuer be moued, but fo foone as thou dibeft reftraine thy fa- MC nour from mee, I was ftricken.

Baybush. then bid I returne to thee, @ Lord & praied, what profit is ther !! inmy blood when Jam flaine? or thall my body made of buft fing prailes unto thee, or Deelare thy truth and faithful conftancie in performing thy promifes. D Lozo, heare me and receine me to thy fauout, helpeme good God !! I befeechthee, and haue mercte fe bpon me , and feethou haft turned my mourning into toy, and remooned the forrow of my heart & to girb me with gladnelle, year thou ball made thy louing kindneffe fo foyfull buto me, that I Dol meditate of thy goodutfle all the Day long, therfore thal my tongue ! be wholly confecrate both now beautifull

and ener to fet footh thy prailes.
D Lord my God, on whole mercie dependeth my faluation, I will give thankes to thee for ever and ever-

Aprayer that God according to his mercifull promife will deliuer him from his enemies.

Carken I most humbly beletch thee, D God, butomy complaint, and incline thy eare buto my lametable sighs, for my loule is now opposite with troubles, and grienously wonnded through since, wherefore release my heavie burthen, and mi-

Baybush, tigate my tormenting paines, for there is none to helpe me butil thou alone, that art the God of my might, mine eies cannot reft. nor mine eyeliodes flumber, be- # caule of my heanineffe, but fo fo fosne as I record the greate goodneffe hewed unto me of old. how is mp foule comforted, and il how quiet is my confcience within me, belfuer metherefore accor. ding to the wented mercies, and let me neuer be vnmintefull of !! thee, but that my fpirit may Rill reforce, and be indued with a fedfall hope of thy promifes, and though the wicken fecke my decap, get let my truft be whollp! tired upon thee : gine me bnder-Canotag

Canding and knowledge from aboue, that I may faithfully obferue thy fatherly precepts: be not long ablent from me D Ood, 10 neither let thy fweete promifes & faile me, but in thy mercy refpect? me thy fernant, and poure on me thy heavenly bleffings : grant me the direction of thy grace and holy fpirit, that with all humilitie and perfect patience. I may ffant falt in the day of my trouble, and after this wretched life ended, indue me D Lord, with thy eternail reft to dwell with thee for

ener.

A gratefull extolling of Gods in-ERom the very inward part of my heart, Dmy foule, praife thouthe Lord, and all that reffeth within me praife bis holy name, for all his graces, mercies, and manifolde benefites that be in great mercie hath bellowed byon me, for he hath concred the filthineffe of my infquirles, altered inp naturall wilfulneffe, and healed !(? my broken heart, and the floudie! wounds of my conscience: D my God thou hattredeemed my life Na from delleuction, and of thine infinite mercics boeft alwates fatif-fie me with good thinges:then renueft my fonle like the pouth of an Cagle, and haft reuealed unto mee thy way and holy word: thou art altogether mer-Mcie and full of compassion flow to weath, and of great kindeneffe to allfuch as come unto thie, thou mile not alwaies lowie, noz keen ! Athine anger for ener neither boll H thou peale with me after my finner, norreward meaccording te mine iniquicies : for then in mercie wilt let my finnes lo farre Il from me as the Catt is from the dieft, and neuer thinke boon! them any mo; e: thou heweft the felfe to be a mott grattone father lo in extending thy bountiful bene-li uclence

Baybush nolence bute fuch as honour thee. for thou knowell that we are but buft and like the flower of the fielo, alwaies ready to be carried away with light blaftes of winde to all mammer of vanities, but thy mercie (D my good God) and lo= uing kindneffrendureth for euer. Let thy righteouines bold me by both now and enermore, that I may feare thee and keepe thy commannbements in continuall remembrance to Do them, that af. ter this life en bed I may gaine the fraition of thy kingbome. which for thy elect thou haft prepared in heaven, to fing praifes ! buto thee with the boly Angels, VI and to enion the prefence DLord

A praier to be deliuered from his

R Egard my humble petitions and prayers, moft gracious God, ant in thy mercie giue care buto my requefte, for buto thee alone boe I come in the time of my necellitie, accept therefore 3 befeech thee the cryes that I bereoffer by vntathe, rule thon (my thoughts, and quid my waits aright, that my heart be not inclined to enill, and fa procure me to runne bnabuiledly to boe the workes of iniquities : but let the

Baybush. fuft man with diffretion reprone me, that I by his erhortations may differne and knowe the mares that the wicked have laid toentrap me withall, and not onely frunne them my felfe, but admenish others in like manner to elchewthe fame, who feeing the bugodly with grienous torments to be miferably afflicteb. may with humble and penitent hearts returne unto theen Loid, and acknowledge the to betheir onely flay and fuccour in al their ! actions:my life, D Con, is erpofed to all mileries: neuertheleffel I most earnestly befeech thee to k be my protector, and though my fate be flipperie, yet let thy right hand support me, and thy louing kindenesse enclose me about, and when my hands are erected to call upon thy name (veing full of hope) grauntspeedie release unto me, least A fail into the net that the wicked have laid forme, that I bring governed and directed by thy mighty power, may for ever hencisofth ertolithy giozious name, whilest the wicked are together entangled in their owned multice: graunt this D father for thy deare fonne our Load and Saufour Jelus Chata.

A

A prayer to perceive his owne fraile estate.

Teach me D Logo to ord'r mp fteppes according to the rule of thy holy word, that the wicked entray me not in my Dea-Itnas, Let the number of mp baies be knowne unte me , and make me I befecch thee moze and more ferioufly to confider how transitory this life is, that I may apply my heart cominnally to the contemplation of the hisben ferrets and benine mpfteries, foz the length of my peares is but as a fpanne, and all carthly things are nothing but meere vanitie in thy fight, therefore as the chafed bart befireth to be refrefted by the aid of the water brookes, fo longeth my fouleafter thee, D Son: therefore let not thy graces and holy fpirit D God, be taken from me, but excend the band to Deliner me from all inconnentences, that I become not an open! rebake unto mine enemies, take thole plagues and feuere punifi. ments from me that my finnes Do Deferue, and let thy mercie be an eternall comfort buto mee, graunt me bnberftanbing and fend me knowledge from abone, that I may fee into the cause of my afflictions, and neuer murmure at thy fatherly chaftifeBaybush. 47

mentst heare my praier and in thy mercy take pittie and compassion upon me, asswage the great heate of thine anger towards me, and release the troubles of my heavy heart, and grant me a space of repentance before the time of thy fatherly calling, that I may rest with thee for
ener.

A prayer for iourneying.

Commit this my fourney and corporall travell, most merciful father, but thy heavenly di rection to guive and governe me therein as half feeme best to thy onely goodneffe and godly wifedome: and as this my troublefome and weary life is nothing els but a pilgrimes paffage, and enely a fpanfrom birth to grant, fo graunt, that I may alwaies confider of it. And I befeech thee D my God, that as to Jacobi fourniping into the Caft, a praping renerently for the grations protection,thou bibbeit fanoura. bly and of thine infinite mercie minifferail thinges neceffary tol his fafety, fo thou wilt now mer- (C eifully beholde me, a member of thy little Ifrael, and fafely keepe sud preferue me in my fourney, 1 that the fame may tend to the WC honour of thy name, and to the Baybush. 48 comfort of my conscience both now and ever, that like as Iccob saide thou shouldest be his God, so we knowing that in all thinges thou art more good and plentiful buto vs a thousand fold then we can before, may sor thy heavenly graces and continuall goodnesse sing land appaires vulto thy holy name; o God, that so in this case lives, one in trinitie a three in this, Amen.

A prayer out of the Cxlv.
Pfalme.

Romthe bottome of my heart, D my God, will I ertoll thy name, and render thankes buto thee thee for ener and ener. I will confecrare all the Daies of my life to fet forth the glore, and to per lo prailes unto thee continually, for thouart great D Lord, and there is no praffe fufficient for thee, year the memoriall ofthy name will I caufe to endure from one generation to another, neither fall 3 alone labour to doe this my bus tie, for verily there will be alwaies fome affembly which will by all meanes tellifie che remem. [brance of my beeds and peculiar goodnes, and openly declare thy undoubted promites, remaining buto all ages, namely that thou art most mercifull and gratious buto fuch as truft in thee, and Baybush . th v louing kindneffe endureth fork ener, neither is it manifed whether thou art either more flowe unto wrath, or more prone to parnon, for thou, D Lord I knowed art good to all men, and thy mercies are about thy workes, petil is thy name, D God, errolled in thy won es, and the maile of thy gloute appeareth in all thy creatures: thou ffaieff by euery one? which els tho:: to fall. and graun= telt releefe unto fueh as are already fallen, ven thou ginen bely continually bute thofe that fone thee, but beftroieft the wicken, and therefore by good right, D Lord, will I found foorth theil prailes for euer and cuer.

A prayer to be faid before the receining of the Lords Supper.

Duing Lord and my mott merifullfather, in wonderfull mercy, I acknowlengeit hath pleled thee to purge me filly weetch by the death a blody valfion of thy fonne, from al my fing and iniquities, to haue adopted me thy childe, and giuen me the earneft of my faluation, touching (my heart with an infallible fence and feeling of thy mercies and fetled confidence in thy promiles, it Ho that even now, in the commemoration of thy unspeakeable bleffinas

Baybush. hleffings my foule is newly entred into thy house, to take the bolefome cup of eternall falua. tion, and to call boon the holy name:affit me therfore with the fpirit. D Lord, a gine me a wifello and bnderftanding heart, that If may conceine rightly of thy facred mufteries and Denine pieceuts, bilcerne them fecretto, andis receive them effectually, not with rafines of minde, but with fobatety, in righteouines and holfneffe oflife, bito the perfect confummation and finishing of that happy building, which the wozthy goodnesse in mercy hath prouidently begunnein me, yea bn-ff till I be come to the measure of?

the eternall age and fulneffe of my Lozd and fautour Jelus Chift Amen.

A godly prayer for fuch things as be needefull both for foule and bodie.

Extend thy favourable pitie towar ds me, D Lord, and in thy mercie doe away my iniquities, take from me al hardness of heart, and indue me with thy grace and holy spirit, that my delight may be in thy lawes: blesse and prosper I befeech thee, my bodily labours, and send mee such necesfarie reliefe both for my soule and bodis, as shall seeme mest expedi-

Baybush. ent to the Deuine wife bome. D God keepe me under the hadowe! of thy winges from all the afflictions of this wetthes life, and befend me from the naughtie bealing of lying lippes and flanbering tonques: let me not boe any thing contrary to the will, D Lozd, but keepe me in fuch good! order of life, that I be not befa- 103 med of the wicked and bugodly perfon. Confirme me in the know ledge of thy law, and fend me fpce. Die reliefe in al my troublesigine me good God a feeling of my finnes with earneff repentance, and that I may perfener in newneffe of life, to thy bone; and glo- MC rie: let me auoto the company of fuch as be eui il, and let my whole belight confift in the fecrets of thy facred myfferies, that I may openly fet forth thy praifes, and yeelde bnceffant thankes bute thee: graunt that I may elcape! the net that the wicked hane pais nily laid to intrap me, for my hove confifteth in thy faluation, and when my weary daies, Diffe Lord,fiall draw to an end in leauing this life and earthly pilgrimage, graunt me a ftrong and febfall faith with fpeech and memorie even to the end, that fo be. parting in peace, I may reft with thee for euer.

Amen.

A

A prayer to be faide in any kinde of affliction.

Fernall God and father of all mercies, I humbly befæchthæ il C to bow down thine eares & hearten buto me pope finner, whole fate is weake and feeble becaufe of thy heavy Difpleafure, but Il confelle and acknowledge,that it is a just reward for my iniquities committed against thee, respect N me nenertheleffe in thy mercie, and thinke not bpon my tranfgreffions, bel'uermy foule, endue me with all fpivituall graces and confelation, and continually keepe me in truefaith and bumble obedience towards thee, neither let me murmare at the chaftilements, but with patience enbare thy correction: it is in the to beale with me at thy pleasure, fince thou createdft me of bull and flime of the earth, and gaueft me life and breath in my mothers wombe. Wherfeze, D Lord. I befeech thee, fuffer me not to be tempted abone my ftrength, nelther yet tobe holden bowne with greater afflictions then my weak nature is able to endure, butrather a cording to thy tender mercie Supportand relieue me, that neither the flet, the world noz the dinell triumph in my weakenes, gint me a feeling of thy mer

Bay bufh. cier, thatthy graces neuer bepart from me, and when it pleafeth thee, D Lord, to bring to an end this milerable life, graunt that I may with bumble obedience towards thee, and perfect faith in thy binine premiles, neglect the flate of this wettheb world, and reft with thee D Lord my God, in that querladling king-Dome which thou haft prepared for the elect from the beginning of the world, where I hall continually reild prailes buto thee, together with all the hoft of beauen for cuer and eugr. Amen.

A prayer of thanksgiving to God for his benefits.

Ontinue the goodneffe ftil towards me D Lord , that I may batty have occasion to ertoil thy prailes, for great caule boe I already retaine to land thy glorious name for ener, becaufe thou alone art my top and faluation, and the frong citie whereunto I alwaies flie for fuccour, thou haft enerbene my rocke and tower of, To defence, open now therefore the gate of righteonfneffe, that I poore finner may enter therin as one of thy children, fo thall I beill preferned in peace. I bane almaies

Baybufh. waies put my truft in thee. arengthen me therefore I befeech thee, with thy holy fpirit, and as thou art altogether righteons and inft, fo bouchfafe to intruct me in the path wherein I onght to walke, for my fonle retoyceth in thy truth, and befi reth thee in the night fealon, pen and my fpirit fhall fceke thee in the morning: how mercifully beft thou nourith thy reople, and how glozious poeft thou make thy elett? when I was indiffreffe 3 called kyon thee, and when thou Diodelt chaftife me, I poured forth my prayers, and thou like a louing Lord Didbeft thew mercy on me according to thy great kindeneffe. D beare father, my foule now revlenifhed with griefe, becaule of my finnes, befireth to be received into thy eternall reft. I was dead a putrified through my finnes, and enuironed with Dif. paire becaufe of my fall, but thou of the goodneffe biddeft reeld reliefe unto me, and made me aliue againe, vea thou halt eleuated my fouleout of the barkneffe of beath and minifred light bnto me,that I might regard my footefleus: thou haft bpholden mylife from baungers, and preferred me againft the enuious mindes of the wicked, theu haft Defended me from fach as role by against me, Il and fent me relicfe in my greateft necellitie.

Baybush neceffitte, yea thouhaft plenteoulle indued me with all things! and given me a taft of thy goodnelle. Wiherfore D moft merciful Cop. affift me with thy holy fpfrit, that I neuer be baminofull of thy mercies, but may ertolthy glozious name for euer and euer, Amen. A prayer to be vsed before a man doth begin to trauell or take any iourney in hand.

R Cheetmethy bnwoathie feruant, D Lozd, with the eye of the mercle, for on thee bepenbeth my faluation, and there is none but thou alone can baing fufficient reliefe and fuccour bnto mp afflicten afflicted ipirit. ellherfoze, Dood be mercifull bnto me, and rule my heart in thy faith, feare, and loue, with a carefull keeping of thy commaundements, guide thou my footeftens, D God, and gouerne me with thy mightie's hand, that I fall not into the pit of pettruction, allift me wichthy grace and holy fpirit, that I may & both difcerne and retect thole thinges that are contrary to the law, and faue me D God, from the cruelty offuch as fieke to oppreffemp foule:fend me know: ledge from aboue, that I map conceine rightly of thy heanenly myfterieg, and teach me D 1 020 le to order my life, that acording

Baybush to the precife rale of the boly word and benine precepts I map Daily proceede in newnelle of life to the honor and glorie of the name. Induc me with all fpirithall graces to fland against the fubtile affaults and temptations of my gholly enemies, that I may neuer quaile by his tirannie, but gine bim his finall repulle it and btter outrthiow, be thou my protector and defender, moft louing father, that in all my waiss I may be lafely directed by the IC mighty prouidence, for thou art my refuge in all my troubles, and in thy mercie will I flay my felfe for ener, and my hope hail Mill reft in the e, D God, that li-

A beautifull ueft for ever.

A prayer for a man that is befer with aduersaries.

T'Calland crie to thee, D God wich mourning boice, befetching thee to hearken buto my groning fighes, beliner me from my troubles, that oppreffe mee grietoully, for mifery is come b= 4 ponme, and there is none but! thou alone can belpe me : quipe ! me, D Lord inthy truth and lead (me foorth in the pathes wherein Tought to walke, thou art the onely rokce whereunts 3 muft !! cleane, and in thy good time thou it wilt upholo my fate againft my

Baybush. enemies that enuironme about. they baue calt inares in the way to entrap me, and by crueltie haue baily fought my becap. Mberfore I beleeth the D God. come quickly and fuccour me, put forth thy mightie arme, and pelf. uer me from them that rife by againft me, pretending my beterk ouerthiote, Conduct me in the truth, that I be not intrapped in my waics, nor holden in the garke prison of this miserable worlde, from the view of thy penine mafeftie but that I may be compalfed with the affembly of the elect to reloyce in thee D my good ! God, for my beliuerance, and tolfa fing continuall praifes buto the boly name for evermore with a chereful voice prelerue me from beftruction; and vouchfafe, D Lord, to forgive me all my offences, that I may fland flevialt in thee, and never be put to confustion, but to rest with the etternally, Amen.

A prayer to be faid at

I Wost heartily beleech thes, D thou God of al mercy & power, to make strong my soule egainst all the tranblesome and most dangerous assaults and temptations of the world the slesh and the deuill: construe my beliefe and Baybush. and faith in thee, and make me, good Logo, one of the number of thy elect, and graunt that affiny finnes mar be cleanfed in the blood of my Lord and Saufour Jelus Chaift. D beare gather, let thy graces and bleffings be continually poured bpon me, and hine on me with the comfortable beautie of thy cheerefull countenance, and graunt me in this life the perpetuall Direction of thy holy fpirit, and inthe life to come eternall reft with my Lord and Saufour Jeins Chaift. Amen.

款 2

A

A charitable prayer to be vied at any time for the benefit of fuch as live amife.

Lord thou haft euer bene our fafehanen and habitation, and the louing kindeneffe hath beene plentifully thewed buto be and our elbers, from one generation! to another : thou art a God that raianelt and ruled for euer. without beginning or ending, yea thou Diaft createby of buff and flime of the earth, and we being moftmiferablecre tures fo foone as though takeft thy fpirit from bs, are euen then immediarly biffolued into Buf againe, for as a watch in the

Baybuth. night, fo both our life paffe away. and as atale that is told, fo bo we banifb: we grow by like the bearb which at the rifing of the funne both flourify, but in the euenfing is cat howne and withereth: graunt therefore D God that well neglecting all fole imaginations, may account the bayes of our earthly pensiance bow hoat 18 they are, that our mindes by this contration beeing brought from the troublesome care and vaine hope of earthin felicitie, as alfoll called away from all those entilements whereby we wander out of the right path of thy truth, may afpire to true wifedome,inil applying our hearts wholly bu-

to thy eternall tellimonies : be mercifull bnto be, D Lord, and are be from all the affaults and temptations of our ghoffly enemes, conduct ve with thy mighty band, we befeech thee, in all our # dealings, that we may walke bprightly in our effate and vocation without frand oz beceit, grant ! that after fo long and fumumerable troubles as we have fullife ned, thy goodneffe may fitte beto be like a most pleafant light, that we being fatiffich with the if comfortable no urifment thereof. may enjoy thy true and eternall confolation, and like as with many milettes thou halt rorrecal ted ba, fo we befeech thee of thy eternali

Baybush. 60 eternall goodneffe to comfort ba againe, and in the middeft of all our troubles reftoze bs to fop and gladneffe, that from the bottome of cur hearts we may peclo continuall vialles unto thee : accept by amongst the number cf the heaventy armie, and let the voice of our humble petitions, D Dod, afcend by unto thee, make us continually thankfull for our election, and let be neuer forget that thou half taken be into the family to be cared for of thee, yea To let this the glose thine fouth to our pofferitie, and let thy ercec-Ding goodnes beautifie a aborne A bs: gouerne thou our counfels 473 from the fanctuary, and let our 14 enter - /

A beauriful l enterpiles be acceptable in thy fight, D God, that lueft for eute. Amen.

A prayer for the affiftance of Gods power and holy spirit against our enemies, and the dangers of this world.

E Ternall God, I most humb'y beseech thee give eare unto the prayers and dolefull cries which I heere poure footh before theet Arengthen me, that I may walke in thy waics, and carefully anoid the path that the oppressors tread. Accept the requests, of thy seruants, wouchsite, D Lord in mer-

Baybush. cie to relieue them that truft in thee against fuch as refift thy pock trine : keepe me as the apple of thy eye, and enermoze befend me from my enemies, euen buber the habow of thy winges, for they arefull of enur, and their cruelty cannot be fariffied but with my neath, nenertheleffe my hope Dependeth only bpon thy afficance, that thou wilt fand en my fige, whereby I may beterly vanquift and onerthiow their force, for thou art my fortreffe and frength ! in whome is no variety, in thee will I truft D Cod of my falua: tion, yea I will call byon theek and praife thy name for enermore: preferne me therefore and affig me in the day of my daunger, let not the bigodly man picuaite a: gainft me, but prenent their wicked denifes that intend mp defruction , indue me plentifully with thy graces, that I may take delight in those things that may please thee, and bestow such good gifte as thou haft lent me, to the ble of my @ builtian bretheren that fland in need theroft let thy spirit scale the affurance of thy election in my heart, that I neuer decline from the tene feruice of thee, but with all conftancle gius mp felfe whelip to the lone of thy law, and perfeuere ther in buto the end, for thou art my pertion and the lot of mine inheritance.

Baybuih, cance, let me not be oppreffed by any earthly penury, leaft through frailety of my fleth I teenforced to fall from thee, but teach me continually by fecret inforations (the right way to attaine to the fruition of thy bleffings) that I may at all times fing praifes bn= to the : be thou alwaies at my right had, DLord, that my courle may be directed by thy godly affiftance, and beliver me outofall troubliome baungers , that 3 may reforce both in body and foule for thy gratious protections himmethy fanour, Dood, in all things that I take in band, and let the fucceffe of my tranels fail out as my hope expecteth, to the great comfort of thine elect, and the erceeding top of all that put their truft in thee, let not the cruelty of the ensmy prenaile against me, leaft be fay that be hath ouercome me, and they that oppreffe me, reioice in my fal, for my truft is wholy in the truth of thy promiles, neither fall my heart Diffent from the hope of the mercy and defence in all my enterprifes bur being at the length belinered by thee from the Dreapfull Daungers of earthly calualties, 3 will not ceale to laub and praife thy? boly name in the mibeft of the congregation for ener and ener. Graunt this, molt mercifull fa-10 ther. I humbly befeech thee, foz

Baybush. 63. Jeins Chaift his lake, my onely Sausour and redeemer, Amen.

A prayer to be faid at all times.

A73th theele of mercy, mot louing father, beholde my care and inward griefe, and hearben I bumbly befeech the to my complaint and lamentable fute, mp Coule cryeth out to thee for mer. cie, ertend therefore thy loning countenance and fauour unto me that am foge plunged in the gulph of calamitter, yet Do & confeffe a acknowledge that I bane and noe beferne moft extreame punishment for fo grienoully offending fending thee my louing Lord, but ifthou fait euer marke what ig amiffe in me, bow am I able to abide thy frowning countenance? but with thee is a males mercy and redemytion, yeathy fernants continually Do, and will for thy, great goodnes feare and lone the holy name, my foule alfo know. Ming thy flagular bountie, in that ! hit bath ever tafted of thy incomparable fweetenes, hallftil truft in thre, for thon bibbeft befend and nourith me when I was be. To fitute of helpe, therefore will 3 waitfor thy faluation even from the mouning unto the evening. and from the evening like wife bn to the mounting againe, for there

Baybush, is no night-watcher that in greater befire longeth for the Bawning of the bay, then booth my foule expect the comming of thee my Lord and Con, for great is thy pittie unte all fuch as with true reventance and hearty pray= ers Dot come bnto thee: Go too ther D inv foule now reicice: & comfort thy felfe in the Lord for cucr , ferne bim with feare and renerence, and be readle for bis comming, fith no parietie reffeth in him, but that he is good and mercifull, and hath often rebee. med and delinered theefrom the Daunger of bell: have mercy bpon me nowtherfore, D beare father, and forgive me my finnes, catt them from thy prefence, a thinke upon them no more to thall my foule reloyce and be glad in thee for ener.

A prayer to be vsed of all men, and at all times.

pait, most louing father, I doe here in hamble wise desire thy graticus sauour: have mercy on me, poote sinner, that cleaueth wholly vato thee, and in the multitude of thy mercies doea: way the heavy burthen of my iniquities: wash me from my sincutes, and clease me from my offences, wash me againe and as

Baybush. gaine, D Lord, that all top finnes whatloeuer lyeth hid within me, may be boue away at once. D mott merciful father, againft thee! onely baue I finned moft grienoully and bone wichebly in thy fight, yea, and thole thinges are mod intly becreen of thee which thou haft pronounced againft me. And I mud needes confeste. that nothing isfaultie among it thy indgemente, for I was corrupt and guiltie in my mothers wombe, and repleat with finne, euen from my crable: what have I to allenge for my felfe (know: ing D Lord, what a wretched cafe I fandin) og whatercufe can I make to thec, D heauenly indae:

iubge: wherefore in thy fight boe I remaine the greateft of all fin. ners, purge me with the true 3. fope (which in thy mercy thou haft (ent unto finners) euen the blood of the beare fonne my I out and Santos Jeius Chrift, that al my filtbineffe may banif cleane away : rellozeme, D Lozd, bato that unipeakeable for wherwith they are indued that are fizowbed from the bonds of finne and Death, and receined into thy fa. nour againe, hive thy faceaway from my finnes, and race out of thy cables all the wicked neffe that I moft grienoufly baue comitteb againft thee :let thy holy fpirit lo Direct me, that I may from benc. feith

Baybush. foorth give my felfe to thy commaundements, then Gall I teach thy waies buto the wicken, and finners thall be connerted buto thre : beliner me from finne that my foule may praife thee contimally: open my mouth, D Load, thatmy tengue in Blaimes and bimnes may let forth thy glork ous name. For thou bellrett not facrifice, but a forrowfull minbe? Canb contrite beart, with the true feeling of finnes and inward repencance and bufained turning !? unto thee, which oblation, D Loid, I now offer unto thee, bumbly befeeching thee to accept & thereof, and incline thine eare thereunto for Jelus Chift bis

A beautifull lake my only Sautour and redemer. Amen.

A prayer very godly and neceffary to be vied at all times.

L Did graunt me the afficiance of thy grace and holy spirit, that my soule vnto thee map yeld continuall praises, let my whole life ertoll thy great kindnesseal waies shewed vnto me, for all praise belongerh vnto thee, thou hast indued my heart with ioy, and lifted my soule out of the mire, wherefore I will not seeke to any mortall man, for their state is slippery, and their life consistent

Baybufh in their breath: whereofteing bereaued, they are refolued againe into but, but let my truft be in thee D Con, on whose mercie pepenbeth my faluation, for thou Dood, art exceeding good and !! gratious bnto all fuch as come unto thee, great is thy power, ob how wonderfull is the bandie worke in thy creatures, thou beareft a great zeale bnto thy feruante, and keepeft promile with thine elect, thou openeft the eves of the blinded loule, and gittel (underftanding to the fimple, thou pippett arme my foule when 3 fainted in mifery, wherefore gine me buderffanding, that I may Diligently Cearch to knowe thy 1 3 mill: thou binbeft befenb and Mourith me when I was beltis Ctute of thy helpe: thou comfortett? the fatherleffe and widdows.but finfultice ouerthrowell the wickeb. D Lozd I fee that all fleft fi is graffe, and the riches of this world are nothing but banitie. but the riches are enerlafting: wherefore grauntthat I map be plentifull in all good workes, and lead a life in this world agree able to thy will, that the fame being enden, 3 may reft with thee for euer.

A

Baybush.

68

Agodly prayer vnto almightie God against all affaults of Sathan.

Dumbly crane and belefch the, moft mercifull God, in fauour? to behold my troubled heart, and giue care onto my lamentable cries, for bnto thee alone De I offer by my prayers, bellring thee, in mercy to refpect thy fernant? that now caleth for thy Direction: let my pathes be guided accor. Ding to the will, for thou art a God moft pure, and canft abibe no iniquitie at all to raign in thy fight, neither the buiuft perfon to Rand in thy prefence, wherefore,

D'Logo, endue me plentifully with the graces, that have no fpark of goodneffe, in me, fend me knowledge from aboue, and Direce mewirb the fpirit, that I be not utterly call away for euer, but pardon my intquitte, that I may brawncare buto thee, and with reverent feare ertoll thy glozious name. Let not Gathan my mogtall enemy preuail againt me,but deliuer me fro ihe mares that be baily layeth for me, replenify me, D Lord, with under. fanding, that I may fafely walke in thy lawes, for the enemies of thy truth, and diffurbers of my foule are many, they diffemble in beart, and with their lippes they Baybush 69 flatter baily, but my trust is in thee D Lozd, that then wilt confound their deuiles, so shall I relique in thee, because thy hand hath delinered me, and my tongue shall never cease to extel thy praises and exceeding goodnesse, because then hast defended me with the shield of thy mercy, and respectively my soule from Leadly daunger. Amen.

A prayer to be faide in any kinde of affliction.

Relieve me G God, I mod humbly befeech theefrem al the treatmone invalions of my ghouly enemies, the worlde, flefb, and the Benill, and behold the carefull heart of him whome thou hatt fricken and biffteb at. cording to thy heavenly will and because man in his owne nature is nothing but blindnelle and fol- 10 ly before thee, and therefore cannot poff bly conceine rightly of the things about : renue therfore thy fpirit in thy fernant that the Re fame intructing my heart baiely ?? in true wifebome and feare of thee, I may come to the feeling of mine owne euifs, and know the cause of thy scourge, that so my wound being apparant to mine eyes, I may with all fpeede fce to the cure thereof, and Deferre no time to feeke the Calue to heale it.

Baybush, beare the boice of thy fernant, D Cob,that crieth bnto thee,confi-Der my complaint, and weigh my inward wee conceined through hate of mine owne infirmities. and for want of the knowledge, for I flie from my felfe as from an buwalled caffle, fearing my footsteps, euen as though 3 walked on thornes : beale not with me in thy Difpleafure, netther let my finnes feperate thy fauour from me, but quicken me in my afflictions, and make me ware wife by thy punifhments: giue me fuch a fence of my infirmities, and fo perfect aperfeue. rance ofmy rechlefnes in feruing of thee, that I may bifpole my felfe to contrarie opper, erecting my mind buto thee, and thereunto to toyne the increase of the grace and firenghtning fpirit, as that I may beable therip to performe my race, and continue in that good way which thy goodneffe bath mooned me to : in the times of my beauineffe be neere bato me, and open my ryes of faith to behold thy eternall lone, fo that The not too much haken by the enemies affaults, but may be repleniched with abilitie, con-Mancie, and patience, to gius bim his finall repulce aud onerthiow.

Amen,

A

A prayer for our Soueraigne Lord King Iames.

Da mightie God of maieftie. and beauenly father beare. into the bumble lutes of be the ferwants poore giue carer that call on thet Bill to maintaine and bleffe with thy great power, our noble King and his offpring, our flay a gouernour: whoe thou ouer & the little floth unto our tomforts great, cabaines batt to fit bpon the bigh and princely frat : from 13 forraine force of foes bouchlafe goed God to guard his grace: that all their Inbtile fleighte and fnares he boubtleffe may befare. Lend buto him love life D Liob,

Mant eke a royall raigne, and grant Shithat be thy graces great for e-Jaermoze may gaine . Thy blef. flinge bonntifull bestome von him we thee pray, that his belighe may be to loue thy lightfome law Wfor ave. And earneffly for to imbrace thy Golpell part at large, Junto the comfort of the church Committes to bis charge. Unber the havow of the winges Lord kee ve him to the end, and from Q confpiracies allo vouchfafe bim Meo defend , Convert or els confound all fuch as mischiefe bo be-Inile, against his grace, and to the Deruth are btter enemies, God Traunt him peace in confcience ind bealth without annoy . that

Bay bush. 72 we long time and many yeares his piclence may entoy. Amen.

The confession of a Sinner.

R Ighteons God, then that art the father of all mercies, and comforter of all mankind, even of thy tender love behold me poore finner that have traied from thy precepts throught gnorance and traittie of my fleth, and most wickedly erred from thy holy commaundements like buto a wandring sheepe having no shepheard. D Lord I do confesse I have followed too much the devices and desires of my burightens.

teons heart, whereby I baue at Mundiy tunes grieuoully offen. Woed the maieftie in breaking and Ineglecting thy boly lawes which Athou balt commaunded me to Discepe, and contrary to thy will, ic Wolfowen thele ungodly actions which Tought not to boe , lealifing budone thois good th'nges that the facred word bath taught fo me, fo that in me there is no grodnes, ercept thou, D Lord, Do speedily looke byon me, and in Deby great mercy pardon my hai. To mous offences. forgineme, Di bearefather, and forget my iniquities, I moft entirely befrech !! Whee, that here with a forrowfull for Theart confeste my faultes buto thee

Baybush. thee, D Gob, requesting thee of thy fauorable goodneffe to reffore me that am penitent, and in the mercy fend reliefe unto thy fernant, fatiffie my fonle with the fanour againe, according to the promife, which thou halt beclared buto all fuch as come buto thee in the name of thy beloued fonne Telus Chill my faufour: wherefore, D my God, I come unto thee with an humbleminde, befeeching thee from the very inwards of my foult, to graunt ! me the affidance of thy grace and holy (pirit, that I may ever bereafter in newnes of life line as becometh the fernant, bpzightly in thy fight, and beale faithfully with all men, to thy honour and glozy and the comfert of my loule. Amen.

Another prayer vnto almightie God.

Is mercy, D Low, bouchfafe to heare my prayers, and let my cries have accelled not to the hive mot thy face from me, I beleech thee, in the time of my trouble, but with specificalline thine eates who me when Icallibehold, there is no certenty in my flesh, sor my life consumerhas the smoake, and my bales do walt in sorrow, mine enemies lie in wait for me, and they that rage against me, have conspired

Baybush confpired my brath : wherefore the feeling of the wrath and bea. ute of pleafure hath quite confumed me . but thou , D Loid, (whole promiles I know en-Dure for euer) continuelt all one God in mercy bato fuch as call bpon thec, therefore Do I flie bn. to thee in my diftreffe, befecching thee to affit me with the grace and holy fpirit, that the caufe of my mourning and pitcous complaints being taken away , I may Daily proceed and got for= (7 wardin newmeffe of life, to the? bonour and glosy of the hole name, Confirme thy good worke, begunne in me, D God, and let me neuer want the affidant aid?

berein. left it be beterly fruftrate Let not mine iniquities be any binacrance to the bountiful good. nelle, neither vet my negligences (in feruing ofther) moone the to detractthe operation of thy bo b frittit thy feruant, but with fpeede conficer my frailty, and parden niy offences for Jelus Chrift bis fake fo thall I Declare thy worthinede, and ertell thy great kindeneffe fbeweb bnto me at all times . Dane mercy bpon ! ine , D God , baue mercy bpon (me according to the eternali promiles, makeme plentifull inail good workes to boe thy fatherly will, and let thy commandments be my whole belight, refret my Baybush, hart with the fruition of thy blef fings, and let me not at any time be bainindful ofthy goones, but & veelo continuall thankes unto thee for thy great benefits erten. bed towards me, take me not away D God, in the mibbeft of my baies, but prolong my time, and conduct my fostfteps , that baning viewed at full thy graces ineftimable kindeneffe , 3 may neuer ceafe bntill the laft galp to fing praifes buto thy boly name for ener and eucr. Amen.

88 3

Aprayer to be vied when a man is in any kind of trouble.

Onfider, D my Cod. I befeech thee, the wofull complaints and prayers that I bere offer by to thy bigine Balefty,U unto thee alone boe I fue fogl belpe, remit therefore my iniqui. ties, for themultitende there of Doe? fpeedily crane thy aid, and in thy merer be fanourable bnto me. asl thou halt ener brene , for the ugh Twere Dainen to feeke the farthe& parts of the earth, pet will I call for thy Direction, yea when I am toamenteb with cares, 3

Bay bush, haue no other refuge to flie bnto but onely to thee, D my Gob wherefore in mercy looke on me. and in thy good time take me by into the place of toy prepared fork thy elect, where I may peaile theeff for ener, for bem haft thou in great mercy bealt with me , in being unto me an enerlading to: wer of befence againft mine enemies, and though by reason of the retchtelneffe and frailip of my corrupt nature , I haue eftloones fwarned from thy boly word, yet! I befeech thee, D Deare father, beale fanourably with me, and lay not my offences buto my charge but thew thy felfe a louing! and mercyfull God towards me.

and pour on me thy gifts of grace, that I may be holy bute thee, and Saccepted in thy fight, fo thall my life be profonged, yea & fo happy indeed, as it hall neuer becay, and I mall refort to thy tabernaele in peace, where I hall be fatilfies with the fruition of thy fanour, and befuffained withmercy and truth for euer: pfrect me continually with thy boly spirit, and teach me, good Lord, to hate the waies of the wicked, erect my minde to thecontemplation ofthy beanenly myfteries, and receiue me both now and ener into the gratious protection, for my adue-Cat Jelus Chaift his fake, Amen. A prayer against the feare of death.

Octernall God and mereifuff father, from the bepth ofmy weake heart boe I laud and gloriffe thee for all the benefits beflower on me from the beginning of my life bnto this prefent, efpecially for the bleffings of my election repemption, vocation, in Aification, and fanctification in Chaift Jefus. Thou haft Delinered me from the cruelty of my aduerlaries, and made me an inberitour of the kingbome, and thy childe by adoption, yet thon half giuen me (norwithffanding my buthankfulneffe) the earneft Muenny of my faluation, and in mer-Ncie haft reconciled me in Chift. whill I was pet a grienous ent-Amie bato thee, thon tookeft me Mont of the blinde bungeon of careleffeignozante to renderthankes buto thee , and to call tpon the Uname, in all which thou haft canfed me to proceed and profit bn- fc to this day, wherein the pleafare fcemeth to incline me towards the greatest benefit that euer 3 Pyet talted, that is, to fi ce me from 10 the extremities of this life and to bing me to that beauenly liberty where hall be no bitterneffe. Powl Mitherefore, D Deare Father, for Je- (C flus Chuft bis fake erect my mind to wards 1

Baybush. towards thee, and as at all times of my life bither to thou ball nou-il rifhen and preferned me, fo note in my laft need bifft and regard me, D God, that as the enemie will now bend his force ag ainft l me, fo then with thy louing protection and holy fpirit wilt comfort me and with thy prefence befend me , that my faith Bill incree fing, with armed patience, I may bilpile the frare of this bodies Death, kno wing that it is the bnauoidable way that then half appointed to boe away my mogtalitie , and to bring my fonte to reft, to gelbe praifes bnte thee in topes everlafting, which the viouidence bath ordained me puto :

bnto : lo inftruct me therefore to number my daies, that I may! apply my heart to the eternali wilhome :teach me, (weet Loid as heretofoje to Ifue, lo now to frame my end, that it may rebound to thy glozy, whereunto mith a fighing heart, I humbly befeech thee, that my bnderftanbing may alway be lightned with the feeling of my owne infirmitie, and that in all perfect humilitie I may flie from the mind of all earthly flay, and fo not fainting in my farewell, but cleaning to thy promifes, and apprehending thy faluation with fare hope, 3 may expect the diffolution, fo beholding thee with the eyes of my faith.

Bay bush. 79 faith, I may grow as by degrees weaker in bodie, so fuller and Aronger in spirit, so that when the last breath is passed, my soule in the bosome of Abraham may soy-fully respire the triumphant as bors of an endlesse life, Amen.

A prayer for Chirurgians.

Mostmer ifull God and leuing father we most earnestly befeech thee let the eye of thy mertie behold vs, and harken to the humble futes of thy pooze feruants, that with pentient hearts boe appeale before thee, regulring pardon for our intquities com-committed baily againft thy bi. wine maieftie: bouchfafe, D Loid, of thy wonted gooneffe to ertend and hew thy fanourable pittie and compassion towards vs, and lay not our finnes bute our charge, but putthem quite out of thy memory for Chill his fake thy bearely beloued fonne our fa-Muiour, and graunt that we may render bute the cotinual thanks for thy manifold benefits and (-) Iternali mercies that thou of the Offtender love boft baily beftow up. on bs. Affift bs also with the grate, that we may neuer ceale to fing praifes buto theefor our Melection, creation, and redemp. ficion : we beefech thee, D Loid,

Baybush to give by the true knowledge of that Art whereunte thon baft called bs , thereby to maintaine our felues and our families frem the extremities of this finnefull world and momentaneous life, for we bee not one'p bepend bp. on thy fart erly pacuibence, tut Docconfelle, DLord, thet enery good and perfect gift commeth from thee : therefore be min ofuil wee befeech thee of thy feruants, and indue be with the bleffings of wilhome and underffanding. fiththat thou alone haft electen and orbained be as inftruments to minister those the rich and plentifuil aifts which then haft appointed for the health and re-

liefe of manking , vouchlafe to gine os the gift of healing, that we may frame our feines to Doe! thy will therein, and be a com-Most to fuch as lie in miferie and cruell paine by occation of bodily ficines and externall calualties, and berenuto lo ioine the increale of the grace a hole fritt, that all Mone actions may be guided accuas Ding to the rule of thy denine pie cepts and comm undements, bat our confciences be not fpotted in thy fight , but may remaine pure and holy, euen as thou, D Lozd, artholy, alwaies renoking to memo ate our duties and neceffarie bocstion, wherebyour hearts may be continually thereo

Bay bush. bu to call for thy afficance, remooue from be all hatefull and euill thoughts , with the courtous beffre of filtbie lucre, and incite in bs a confideration of the wofull eftate of the poore and f needie, that we may reliene their neceffitie with fuch good things as thy fatherly goodneffe and onfpeakeable prou bence in greater if mealure hath bleffed bu wir ball. Refpect bs, D Lord, in thy mercie, that those things which we goe about may profper with us, and that all our labours which we thall take in hand , map be bleffed and brought to good fatceffe by thy affiftance and fatherly protection, to the honour and alorn glorie of thy boly name, credit of thy church, comfort of our Christian brethren and our owne faluation: graunt by this, D Lord, for Jelus Christians lake, our only Saujour and redeemer. Amen.

A prayer for penitent finners.

MDfimightie. Cod and eternall king of maiestie, how can Thide my lesse eway from thy presence, or with what pretence might I cover my shame from the piercing fight of thine eye, since there is nothing in me but a whole heape of sinne, whereby I am almost driven to the doze

Baybush. ofbifpaire. Erect therefore thy mighty band to helpe me, D Lord, for if the wifedeme proutor not Mfor me, I am al waies in Jaunger, for burighteoufneffe in this my Motortuptible bobie raigneth as alle king , wherefore when my ene. mies enniren me, 3 wonder that thou boel not bellroy me, confi-Dering thelewoneffe of my liuing and the mulcitude of my grienous offences. But thus thou vieft to comfortthy children, and my foule but for this reliefe, D Goo had perified long agee , therefore afrom the bottome of my heart crie I buto thee , take me noth away Ibefeechthee, DLozd, in imy finnes , neither let me reape

the portion of the wicked : thou haft fewed me the Daies of comfort, and often beliueres my foule from the Lion, and because thous in great mercie bal let mee fee! this goodneffe, and alfo mabe me fo refoice therein , increafing light after barkenes, 3 will neuer ceale to call buon thee in my affictions, butcontinually expect the good boure in my banger , increale my faith, fettle me in the knowlenge of the will, and plentioutly bleffe me with thy grace and holy fptrit beth now and euer, for no place is free from the rage of thy abuerfaries : affift me in my infirmittes, that I may ener gaine a Double recoycing, and that the Baybush. 83 most subtile assaults of the enemies may alwaies fail out to be his foulest foile, through Jekis Christing enely Dausons. Amen.

The true knovvledge of afflictions and tovwhat end they are fent,

The Scriptures of Sod in funding places doe manifestly declare buto vs the healthfull effect of afflictions, in calling them a cup, or drinking glasse: for like as the expert Phistion giving but o his patient such quantity of medicine as he thinketh good, the patient must of necessity yeeld the choice of his fance to the fkilfull prouidence of him that Aminifreth : quen lo our good and gratious Loid , knowing farre better what is profitable and mott erpedient to cure the infirmittes a ma abies of our fonler, tameth our affections with fuch cups of afflictions as his wonder. full wiftpome in mercie fore feeth to be moft behooneable for bs. In like manner are they allow called in another fence bis artille. rte, his fpeares and his Cwoats, wherewith to fight and onerthrow his enemies : end euen as thele befinitions touching their ends are not alike, but bery di-Muers fo likewife are the afflictions def Con feut both to the godly

Baybush. and ungodly, but to two fundite! ends, for by the one fort of affliction, God erercifeth the patience of the faithfuil handling them for the most part more roughly than be both the wicked The other he MC Bleth both to telliffe bnto be,that iniquitie cannot raigne bronnichable, as allo to hold them bu. ercufable, and that is the full end of all afflictions , extended to the inabell or reprobate. The cuppes therefore and afflictions of God, as they are not fent to all men to ! one end, fo bothey not worke one effect, butfor all them the lewd perfen remaineth ftill ungooly. ficht he was before be tooke the medicine, and in like manner ficke or rather more bneurable be co. Meth foreward after ft, be feeleth Shimfelfe fmitten, but conficereth not in truth who fmote him, fo Merceeding farte is be from the perfect perufing of his owne life, and ouerniweing of bis former Daies thereby , be imputeth bis Mcroffe to fortune , rather than !! Mimelleth bis owne annes orin. Mtenbeth to change bis life , and Alf his croffe endure but a little, be Schafethat God and refecteth bis Corrections, be amendeth not at Mallbut wareeb worfe and worfe: farre contrarie is the effect of Athole afflictions which Cobsts Alect luftaine, for his children fo Moone asthey feele his croffe by Baybush. any meanes layed bpon them. lithey by and by without belay bethinke themfelues of their finnes, remembring that the band hof God is come von them for Ofthe fame in which feare with allf Shumilitie and reverent trembling cafting bowne ruery height with-Whin them, they throw themfelues! Matlong at the foothoole of Gods Wabaieftie, reckoning by all their bainous crimes to their power, Jacknowledging their faults , and Abeleeching God in mercie to giue! them a feeling of ther finnes, that he will pierce their cares, land in luch wife open them, that their affliction may turne to thell Comfort of their confciences : this cale is cleane contrarie (as is Maid to the fearefull puniffments of the reprobate, they being har-Denestike Pharao thereby, for lacke of his fecond grace, which is the foftening of mans heart and foberneffe of bir nature by the holy Shoft, from the free goodneffe of our eternall Cob. Those bring opened in their bearts by fuch grace and feeling of Dobs chaftifements , are fprebily taught to millike of them: felues for their loofe life and of. fences, to figh and grone for them, and tofficto the mercie of God forrefuge. Row by thefe conferences appeareth a certaine rule! or touthitone , (not without an Baybush. unfpeakeable comfort) to Gode elect , for in as much as God punifted Bharao, and foftened not his heart withall, be intended to leane him inerculable to his beferned beftruction , but in that be IC afflicted Job , be bib it to the bettering of his life, mollifying his heart to his faluation : and hence we gather two points of cemfort to be noted and obferned: the one is, that when God maketh be to feele his hand, fo that we are humbled buder the fame, it is afpecia'l prinilebge and fure to: ken of his good will, and which be neuer fhe weth to any but to his owne children : and the other is, fince we are punifted but to the amendment of our lines and Drawing be backe from our fin-Mull maies, we live therefore in happie cale, for that it beclareth bunto us that the Lord will not Dibe angrie with be for euer , but Nooth as it were bedge in both the fides of our race , euen becaufe be Moueth be, fo that we haue no caufe to poubt of Gods fauour, but rather to be fully refolued, lithat when be puniferh be , be Aboldeth be not for his enemies, Thut by that meant procureth our Malnation : and thus we fee (as S. Paulefaith) our victorie conafteth in taking bold of this lone Mof God in Jefus Chrift , being! Henermore throughly perfmaded, Baybush. that dos bath abouted be to bee bis children and beires of his kingdome, which principle weel once hauing, ought not to be led afibe not bilutaved with any af. fliction , for feeing that God bea. Il reth fuch exceeding lone towards vs, we hall neuer beiconfombed, and fo little in bery beeb fall our afflictions binber our mel- MG fire, that they shall turne to our furtherance, and bnboubtfully prooue unto be, that Chift bis prake is (weet and eafit , and not fa onely bringeth bs to the obedience of Cods will, butto eternall happines. Thus afflictions arein & truth our medicines to Diine bs to bed, to tame the prine of our nature to killour vices , tomake Hos know our felues, leath our linnes enfamedly, flie from our owne waies , leeke frength of the Latord, and fo from vertue to ber-Menealcens to the beight of our fil Waluation: finally, as to the impartent reprobate they are the Mearefull comets of their beltru-Metton, fo to the number of Gods Welect they are the infallibly pled. ages and fure enfignes of their Acontinual victory and future tri-Mumph in Jelus Chaift. The life and healthfull afflictions of Job and Daufd in aboundont mauner Do teftifie the louing end of Bods N Mafflictions, and in them may well find infinit tellimonles , to proone how &

Baybush. bow profitable are the fatherly chaftifements of our good Cob, who by them booth enermoze fcoure be from the ruft of our na. turall disposition, and fineth bal like pure gold in the furnace: briefely, by them be violently bzeaketh into the heart of old & Dam, and there burfling the cotrupt ends and coates of his beines, by his wonderfull overation powzeth a new fpirit into his arteries , which creeping ! through the fences with a linely ff moifture, as by a certaine beauen. ly Analogie or propertion , Doth infectet fort Dispole be to contemne this vile place of milerie, and to elenate our minbs to God, that fo framed bs , and fe foifa. king our finfull waies and batefull affections , indenour with all newnelleto ferne & worfte bim in righteoulneffe and holineffe of life, and with all patience looke! for the renelation of the elect? chilozen of Goo, againa which new birth and inuincible bore before time referued bate be by the good purpole of the father in bis fonne Chift, and now badoubtedly confirmed in our confciendes,bythe babges of this fatherly bandling hall nothing anaile be, for all the bartes of affliction in what kind foeuer affaulting bs, thallbe fo farre from prenailing to onerthiow our faith and liber. tie /s

Baybush. tie (as the enemy would') as that they thall fine-fold rebouble the force thereof with erceeding toy against : bem, lo that the bery fubtileft engines of Cathan fhali make be the moze inuincible, and his forcethe more contemptible. Thus I fay, hall Gods fanoureble ererc fes intermedied with his graces, worke the fame effect in our foules, as our meat and brinke both to our bodies : And like as all fuch nouriffment is the right and ordinarie meane whereby our bodies in this earthly taber-18 vacle boe baily increase and grow in Arengthfull habite of health: euen fo by the-other , our foule is vilited, Arengehened , ans inerea.

intrealed, and we are brought by the mercifull hand of God even as by vegeres and from thep to thep, till at length we come to the fulnette of our redermer Chift Jefus, to appeare before the Lord in Sion.

A prayer for Saylors.

Thou God, that art the Creator and maker of althings, behold be that here profirete our feluts at the foothoole of thy maielit, craning pardon for our finnes, governe be thy people, D Lord, that by thy permission do most damagerously travell the boisterous

Baybush. rous feas , according to the office and becation whereunte thou half called ve, for except thy mightie band bo flay bs , we hall perift, pes , we are alwaies in banger to be overwhelmed with the perillous wanes of the fa, and to be fwall wed by in the acepel gulfes thereof : behold be ther: fore, D Lord, in thy mercy, that in thefe cur enterpales we many receive the fruition of the bleffings : when thon, D God, art angry with ve fer finne , thou Mi makeft the ftormes to rife, and the feas to rage, in (nch fort, that they enforce by to quake and tremble, and when we ceale from finne, thou cauleft them in like manner to ceale, for thou appointelt to the fea bis courle, and kee. peft it ener in bis bounds, yea thou balt opbainen us to tranell thereon, to feethy macuellous workes and ercellent greatneffe, as also to beclare thy wonders amongt the chilbren of men, thou balt oftentimes for one bilobebi-L Plence and inerbinate liuing cau-fi fed bs to feele thy wath and grie." nous Courge, the bangers whereofhaue almost brought vs to our Wits end, but when we turne bn. to thee with repentance thou wilt not onely bying bs to a lafe barbour to eafe our meary bodies, but allo when our painefull baies are fpent and ended, receine be

Baybush. 91 sinto the blessed haven of eternall rest, the which, D Lozd, graunt be to come buto for Jesus Christ his late.

Grace before meat.

TO thee, O Loid God, we render most hearty thanks for thefethy blessings of meat and drinke, which thou in mercy dock now bestew by on us, beseching thee to graunt that we doe not abuse them immoderately by surfetting or gluttony, but onely to feed thereon with sobrietie, thereby to sustaine our feedle flish and hungry desire, and so frame our speeches, O God, that thy name therein

there'n may be gloziffed, and our Chaiftian bie:hien ediffed : pieferue mot loning Lozb,our grattous King , with thy univerfall Church : grannt bs, we bumbly befeech thee, the continuance of thy glozious Sofpell to be truely and fincerely preached amongt lbs, and make be faithfull follew-Hers thereof in righteonfnelle and f holinelle of life : bonchfafe , D beare father , to befend and enermoze to keepe our Realme from Ache inualion of forraine enemies, and fend be a perpetuall peace in confcience, through

Jelus Chilt our

Lojo.

Grace

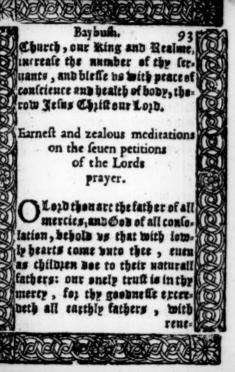

Baybush.

0

Grace after meat.

Rations Cod and meft louing faiber , wethy poore fernants yeild buto thee in bumilitie of heart all praise and thankes, in that it bath plealed thee of thy ineftinable goodneffen at this inflant to refreit and relieue the appetite of our earthly bottes with this food of meat and Dainke , which thy Dinine prouibence. DLord, in plentiful mea." fure hath teffowed bpon be, and as thefe thy creatures ere by thy permiffion nedained to nonrift our mostail bodies , enen fo int mercy bouchlafe to graunt that our foutes may be feb and comforted with the binine food of the glozious Gofpell , and that it may lo thine in our bearts and fences. that we by the direction of the grace and holy fpirit , may procees in newnelle of life , to the bonour and glozy of thy bely name. Call bs not , D beare father , tol account of the vaine and ible freeches that we have at this prefent. as alfo at other times of our life. ondifcreetly bleb , but in fanonr remit the fame, and graunt that (6) we with willing minbs may remember and belpe our neeby bietheen, who feele the want of that which we have had at full. Inff mercy , D Lord , preferne thy renerence therefore, and humili. Htie of beart , lone, obedience, and faithfull butifulnelle, as becommeth the children of fo loning a father, boe we call for thy belpe and comfortable affiftance , for who is like buto thee, or can bring to effect thething which thou cant Doe? thy feat is in heaven where! thou raigned in all vignitie for eucimore, thy pi wer is in beauen and earth , and in the fea.vea and the regiment appeareth in all places , then feett all things, thou hearest all things , and by thy eternitie gouernett all things, and we thy poore children boe craue fuccont of thee onely , befeeching thee, D Lord, to raife

Baybush. our bearts from earthly things, Manb bnite our minbs to the con-Stemplation of heavenly things. and make by ready at all times with fledfall hope to erpect ourl beanenty inberttance: praifed beffo thy name, D Lord , which about all other names ought to be had in renerence , fo; thou art altogi-Ather boly, graunt therefore that we may beterly Betelt and abelift the names of all faigned gods, and enermoze bouchfafe to affin Nos in mercie with the grace and holy fuirit, that we may refraine the company of fuch entil perfons as purenerently blafpheme Mithy name, neither fuffer ba by Arctchielnes to Diffonour thee our

God in any of our actions : more-Houer , graunt we moft humbly (6 beleeth thee . D Lord , that the kingdome may euer remaine amonga vs , and that the truth and boly word never Depart from be , but abide in our bearts by thy inspiration , as a fruitfull Doctrine Daily inftructing be, wherby we may with more carnet seale le walke as Chaiftians in newneffe of life to the honour and praise of Athy name, that all men feeing the Mame, may truly turne buto thee, in hope to attaine thy enerlating kingdome. D moft gratious God, Meetby bleffes will be done in all of achings with vs both now and e. ner , and as thou art our heaven.

Baybush. fo father , fo graunt that we may not requestany thing contrary to thy will, but accept whatforuer thou lendeft with reverent minbe faving with chearefull beartes. Thy will be bone , D Lord , for IC euermoze bere on earth , as it fa in thy holy fanctuary of beanen: quicken be. D Lozd, that we may learne more and more to be obedient buto thy beauenly will in? all things as becommeth the bears children , and euen as the boly Angels and bleffen companie poe oblerue the fame with top : fe Direct our inwars affections that we may wholly apply our feines thereunte , and that our whole felicitie in this life may bealtogether imployed in mebitating on thy facred Seriptures. which thou in mercy ball fent and left among ws , to the comfort of our foules and our eternall faluation : and enermose in mercy . D Deare father, bourblafe of the promidence to nouriff and com. Mfort be continually with fach things as thy onely goodneffe both know to be most expedient both for our foules and bodies , wherehy we may goe foreward with all Aquieter conscience to ferue thee Mi afe that we in this life may be maintained and prefer ned , wherby we may be belpfull unto our Achaiftian biethien, e not charge. Lable buto them any waies, el Baybush. pecially, good Lord , graunt that we abufe not thy bleffings of meat and Dainke, but bouchfa'e that we may thankefully receine thy fatherly benefics in luch modeft lett, that the name may bell glozified, our fonles and bopies gratioully comforted, and if is thall please thee at any time to lay thy robbe of toprection byon (& be foz our Bifobedience, and fo to a flict be with any kind of venurie, pet graunt to be inch grace !! Ithat we may continually with all bumilitie be thankefu I buto thee without either murmuring or grudging, and with armed patience ft labidetby leifnre, for thou of thy fatherly goodneffe

hatt willes be to lay our care byon thee , who art able in the good time to relieue onr need : but about all things, D mercifull Sod , granntthat our foules may !! be nourifed and fpiritually feelf with the linely word of thy glezious Gofvell, which gineth know-Hienge unto fuch as belight there. in, and leadeth to life enerlalling: behold, D Lord, our weakeneffe, for thou knoweft our frailty , and Withe wickebneffe of our pouth is not his from thee : we confestig that we were conceined and? brought forth in finne , fo thati through our corrupt nature well daily and hourely offend thy diuine maieftie by Bathans interceptions

Baybuth, 97

ceptions in breaking the commaundements , and negletting our Dutie towards thee, but, D our good God , we moft humbly befeech thre with fighing hearts to gine be a feeling of our infirmities, and firre rs vy with all fpeed in the times of our triall to leeke after thee, and to proceed in repentanceand amenament of life, forthou art our mercifuit Lord, more ready to forgine thad wifor to afke, and therefore we all tome to thee alone, for none in beanennes in earth , Saint nes Angell , can foggine finnes , but thou onely, through Telus Chrift! our redeemer, who hath fuffered the paine Due buts our finnes: for land farthermore we crane cf thee, D beare father, fo to all.ft. be with the hole fpir t , that wer may put out of our hearts all manner of mailice, bebate, aud thoughts of tenengement , and it with Cha Manitie, from the bery inwards of our hearts forgius them that trefpaffe againft bs. that with ftedfaft hope we may crane at thy banes fozginenelle for our finnes: thou mott mightie Dod, Direct our paths and guidel Morr wates, Aretch foozth thy right band to fuccour be. that we may be euer armed with the befence against the violent fnares and Amanifold temptations of the world,the fleft, and the biuel flay

Baybush. be good Lord that we perit not through their cruell innaftons, nor turne from thee to our owne beftruction , for except thou boeft fill continue a good father buto ps, in protecting and Defending be thy children , and bleffing be with the fpirituall graces, we hall fud benly fall into all iniuries : wherefoze our bope both newand ever hall wholy De. pend upon thy mercies, with full) affurar ce, that thou wilt in thy grob time not onely Deitner bal from all entil, but allo nourif and preferne bain our necefficie, and faue be from fuch cruell and grieuous affictions as are readie to moleft be either in beby og?

mind. Thy kingdome, D deare father , we faithfully confesse and acknowledge is an beauenly and enerlafting kingdome, and the power is ercecding infinite, yeal and thy glorie fo incomprehenfible, that it paffeth mans reafon and the limits of his underftan-Ding to attaine to the knowledge, therefore we most entirely be- 100 feech thee graunt bs thefe things that we have fatthfully alked in humilitie of heart, according to thy wil, and gine unto us, D Loid, finch grace, that our prayers may be almaies Directed in verfect falth buto thy binine matellie, Intehout wanering or bombting of thy affiftance, remembiing thy promises, that so praying but of thee with a steefast hope, we may expect the speedic approach of the enertalting comfort in Christ Jesus, Amen.

Baybush. 997

A prayer or thankelgiuing for Gods benefits bestowed vpon vs.

Onduct and prescribe me, D Lord, for in thee alone doe I trust, thou art my health and the portion of my inheritance, yea, thou hast blessed me with intrease, and allotted unto me a faire heritage, graunt therefore D Lord, that with reverence I may render duto thee due thankes fer

all the bleffings which thou balt Ment me, and may finglor the Mame to the benefit of the chil. ozen : let the feate be euer appa. rant before mine eves , that I may line prightly in the Oght: faue me, Doon, from the bann. gerous enents of this trou'les fome and wietched lie and hold the hand continually ouer me, to Naefend my caufe against the furie Mafmy abuerlartes : guibe me, D Sod in all my wayes, that my Mourte may be rules according to thy word , whereby I may faith. Afully perfeuere with all Dutfful obedience in that necestarie boca-Ition whereunto thy onely good. neffe hath or Dained me: for fo long

Baybush. 100 as thy graces taue tom'nion ouer me, I amaltogether ftebfaft and immonable , wherefage I reforce both intodie and fonte nt the werderfult workes effablifed within me, thou gnickneft mell from the mind of earthly careful ? nelle, and makelt me eftentimes? to feele thy mercy, and relieneff my confcience with the renelation of the word , wherefere with Delight hall I Declare the goodnes and praife thy rame for euer and euer.

19 4

A

A prayer for aid in the time of afflictions,

Onfider my crie D Lozd, and gine eare buto me that am oppreffed : helpe me , D God , and peliner me againft them that Doe iniurioufly refift me , preferue thy fernant that flieth bito thee, and respect me in mercie that am continually convertant in calling bon thee , refret my fonle which is lifted by buto thee, for buto thee alone Doe I call and crie. E bou art berify good and mercifull, and welt great clemen-Prie buto them that call on thee, giue care Lord buto my prayer,

Baybush. IOI ind hearken unte my medication, for in the day of my trouble I will eall bnto thee, yea all nations hall extoll thy name, hecaufe of the wondrous workes: teach me the way of thy righteoulnes, and I will walke therein, knit my heart buto thee, that 3 may feare thy holy name. I will praife thee, D Lord my God, with all my heart, yea I will alwaies glozifietly name, for great is thy mercie towards me, and thou halt delinered my foule from the loweft grane. D grations God, the prowd are rifen againft me, a the affembles and inturious Dealings of violent men hane fought my foule, to Deftroy it btterly, and haue nut fet thee before them but thou , D Lord Cod, on whom onely I bot beptind , art kind and mercifull . not haftie buto anger, but full of truth, tage care now of me therefore D Ford and belye me forthy mercy fake, graunt finally that I may mantfeftip know and perceine that thou loueft me, that my enemies (may be grieued and achamed of themfelnes, when they fee that thou boeft yeeld comfort and beip bnto me, fo fall I be endned with greater fey to ferne thee We and to yeeld bate thee eternall? maile and bnceffant thankelgiuing for cuer, Amen.

A prayer crauing aid of God against all our enemics.

X7 Ith fored, T Lout come fouth to beliuer me , make haft to helpkand fuccour me, my God. letthem be confounded and put! to thame that piccend to doe me euil, and fet them beturned backward and put to endleffe confufon that befire my beath:let theur turne home with fhame as a recompence, Dilappointed of their purpofe, which have baunted a: againft me, as though I had bene quite confounded, and graunt thou, D Lord, that not I alone, but all they also that haue a De-Aftre to worthip thee, may with a Nlowe voice afcribe all glorie unto thee, in reloycing, and that they may delight to gine Colemne and Meuerlafting prailes buto thee. who haft in mercie Deliuered thy fernant. In the meane feafon I fand bere alt alone , oppreffed! With the approach of daily finnes, Mand DeRitute of all furcour, pea, and continually griened with the eroublefome affaults of Sa-Mehan, which keepetb the Coule inil Aperpetuail bondage , wherefore make halt and braw neere to helpel Ime, D mercifull God , for bpon Whithy gratious ato Doe I onely De-Typend, D Cod, my belinerer: D

Baybush. 1036
Lozd. I beseech thee, delay not longer, but graunt me thy heavenly assistance, that I feeling thy great kinducke, may henceforth applie my selfe wholy to the observation of thy lawes, through Ielus Chisk my onely Sausour, buto whom with thee and the holy Chosk be all power and deminion for ever.

A prayer to be vsed of all men

WIth the eye of merry, D God, fee into my forrowfull foule, and graticully behold my inward cogications: and as thou had oftentimes hewed thy felfe a most louing and mercifull Lord unto thy fernants , enen fo with humble heart I earneffly befrech thee Dood, fatiffie my mind with good things, and couer my fins in the multitude of t'y mercies, change the frowaranes of my coz. rupt nature, & releafe thine anger Bieteden towards me, that I may worthily praife thee, thew me thy mercy, D beare father, and grant methy Caladtion : inftruct me continually by the holy fpirit in the renelation of thy lawes, that I may thereby perceinethy will in all things, and fo lead a life acceptable in thy fight, and bouchfafe, D Lord, enermore to graunt! me thy beanenly wilcome, that Baybush. I may not be enclined to follie, but knowing whereunto thou haft created me. 3 may biligent. ly moceed in that necellarie bocation thatthy Dinine pronidence! bath cilled me t nto, feruing thee! in righteen fneffe and holineffe of conuerfation all the dayes of my life. Graunt alfo, D Lozo, that I'l may altogether imbracethy true Il and a heavenly boctrine & elchete all fuch things as are contrarie to the will, that fo leading a life !! agreeable to my calling, I may in the end attaine to the end attaine to the loyes enerlafting.

A

A prayer and thankefgiuing vnto God, to be vfed of euery man that hath been either troubled in body or mind.

TD thee D Loid, doe I render continuall thankes, for thou in mercie half heard my voyce, and inclined thine eare unto the prayers and petitions of my mouth, and therefore will I call upon thee to long as I line, for when the most cruell inares of death compassed me, and when the dreadfull anguish of the grave held me, being succome with the troubles of my sorrowfull heart,

Baybush. beart, then I called bpon the Lord , laying : D Lord , I befeech thee, come fpeed Ip and Deliuer my foule, and thou likea mercifuli father bibit fend aid and relicfell unto me : berily thou. D God, aril mercifulland righteous, full of truth and compaffien , for I was in mifery , and thou biddoel fanel me: D my foule enter now therefore into the place of reft, ferino the Lord hath beene fo beneficiall unto the lafette, for he hath ve. I linered my life from Death : then halt Rafed mine eyes from bara kingoutinto teares, and thor haft ellablided my feet in fuct a perfect path, that I map walke newfafe and found amongft the Tiuing.

liuing, for 3 baue cuermore belerweb the promifes of the Lord, and therefore Did I fpeake , enen my aith min firing poice and words! to me, being opzelled with fozot, and thou Dioff ouercome the Dangerous attemps of my foes, quickening me toz thine infinite mercies fake: what fhall I render bn. to thee therefore for all thy bine: fits which thou haft beftowed byon me, I will gine thee the factifice of praife, and call upon thy finame with renerence, yen 3 w II pay my bowes buto thee, which I haue promifed euen in the moft lef the faithfull congregation for Heuer and zuer, Amen.

Baybush.

106

A prayer vnto God, defiring him to defend vs from the malice of our aduerfaries.

Man mercifull God, I befeech thee for thy names take, fane meand deliner me (being an innocent) by thy power, give eare who the wordes of my mouth, and refuse not my prayer that I here present who thy dinine maichie, desend me D Lord, from the wicked and such as rise by a gainst me, consound their deuices, and let the snares that they have set to imtrap me, be as a swood lighting thou their owne heads, cut them downe accepting to thy promiles which thou had made to the children that I being delinered by the extended force of the right hand, may willing by performe my bow and folemne promile unto thee, and celebrate the prailes, feeing there is not thing more bountifull nor more excellent than the worthineste of the power, namely in that thou had faned me from all diffreste, and grannted me my before on my enemies : graunt this, D father, for Jelus Chain his lake our onely redeemer, Amen.

A

Bay bush.

107

A prayer for such as intend to enter into the estate of matrimonie, made at the requisit of M Ed, Fenton,

MOR mightie God and heauenly father, from the bottome of my heart I yeeld all honour, land, praile, and thankelgiuing onto thy divine maiestie, for those thy riches, blessings, and benefits which thous mercy has bestedned upon me: D Lord, that by thy incomprehensible power madest Adam out of the bust and stime of the earth, and treateds him to thine own image, behold me thy feruant whom thy good rleafure hath called to they? honourable fate of matrimony, and as by thy most excellent prouidencethou biodeft gine unto A. pam, Gua to behis helper, and fmmutably ordaineft them to become one fielh , from wham pro ceesed all mankind, fo, D mp good Ged, inthy mercy graunt that this women whom thou? haft ginen me , may be unto me a belper, and that we may be a comfort one towards another, euen as Ahraham bnto Gara, and I faac to Rebecca, and not to fulfili our ungodiy affectious, noil the corrupt and filthie belire of our flefbly appetites , but to loue?

Bay buffi. TOS and live together withall humble obedience and renerent frare towarps thee as becommeth the ferhuants, without ftrife or Devate, and for the procreation ofchilbien , to the increase of the king. Dome : wh'chit it pleafetheeto bleffe be witha'l , grant that we' may bring them byin the feare and true religion: Loibbehold bs, that with one beart and boire boe most humblybeseeth thee so to en-Due, Direct, and fanctifie be with thy holy fpirit, that all our actious may frand with thy honour and glory, credit of thy Church, and our enerlafting faluation: and grauntthat we with all modelly may line together with continuall peace of confcience and libealth of boby , bntill we become aged, that we may fee our chil. Diens children , and thy name eternally abuanced in the Church Mand congregation, and when thy Agoodnes , hath finifed our bayes in this life, conduct our loules in Mafetic buto that ipirituall king. Dome which thou halt ordained Moz thine elect, to reft with thee for ener. Graunt, D moft mercifuil Mather, that those things which we Mhauefaithfully alked, according to Athy will, may effectually be obtai- & ned, that we thy lowly and obedtlent children obtaining the perpe-Atualifruition of thy favour, may Mior thy gratious affiftance and ine Rima-fic Baybush. 109 inest mable treasures yeeld buto thee eternall praise, power, and bominion, with bucestant thankf-gluing both now and ener, tho-rough our ouely mediatour and advocate Jesus Chist, Amen.

A prayer for a vyoman that is barren, and defireth the fruit of her bodie.

Lozd my God, most gratious and louing father in Jesus Chila, beholome, pooze wzetch, whom thy hand hath hitherto humbled as it were in the sight of all the world, at the length take away my reproch, Jacknowledge thy thy hand to be bpon me : for none! fin heanen og earth , fauethp mateftie only, is able to withftand the particular effect of that thy generell commaundement, Bring foorth fruit and multiply Thou! onely (seare father) canft boeit, because of thy almightinelle : and thou allo boeftit euenin thy chilbien, according to the most boly Decree of thy bufearchable wif-Dome : now, because when thou bificeft the children with any wants of outward comforts and bleffings, thou boeft it not (deare father) for any lacke of loue to them, or as though the bleffings allo of this the pertained not to His them, for in Chila Teins, who

Baybush. is Low of all, they are likewife. our right , the bugodly being! meere vinrpers of them, but thou Doeft it to draw them by fome temporal want and fort reffraint of their befires to, feeke at thy hand fome eternall bleffinge, which they fand more in need of, that thereby in the end thou! mightelt be feene to multiply the rich mercies towards them euery way. Of which thy wifcome thou haft left be a leagible enibence in the flory of thy fernant 13 Job : who (after thou badbeft taught bim moze humilitie) thou enricheoft allo, as his heart could befire. Dow because thy waics are all int, D Lord, and theu malkeft walkeft ener like thy felfe , haue mercie on me thy fernant , 3 befeech thee gine me to underfand that which thou wouldeft haue me to fee in this my affliction, and fith through the barkeneffe of my mind,it is hard for me (D Lord) to efpicout the Deformities and wants that are in me , may it pleafe thee to vouchfafe me the especiall ausding of the boly spirit berein : fo as by it I may make a through bilitation of my felfe both for my outward Beeds and for my inward affections, ontill I hall and out the thing that if may please thee, and may also be pet further bleffed of thee, euen in this thing which my heart befi-

Baybush reth, fo thatl this thy louing returne wine away my reproch, the bounteous bealings with the feruant, be toyfutly praifed among thy Saints , and as for me, whole head thou haft thus lifted by, I will neuer ceale talking of thy goodneffe, and informing those who fall in like case of thy liberall kindneffe towards all that wait on thee, and thy moft wife and righteous indgements which thou erercifeft amongit thole alle that feare the boly name, Amen.

A prayer for iourneying.

O Boff louing and tender father, I commit this my iourney and copposall trauell bate thy heavenly birection, to guide and gouerne me as fhall feeme moft erpedient tothe godly wifcome: and as this my troublefome and wearie iffe is but aptigrims valfage, and a fpanne from birth to grane, fo graunt that I may alwates confider of it, and I biletch thee, D my Geb, that as to Jacob fourniging into the Call , a prapa ing fer thy gratious protection. thoudidt minifter all things neceffarie

Bay buth, I 1 2 ceffarie to his fafetie, fo thou wilt mercifully behold me, am; mber of thy little Hiraell, and pofper ma fo in my fourney , that all things according to thy beanely wil may go well with me, to the honoz and abnancement of thy boly name, that like as Jacob faid thou feu! bell behis God, fo we knowing that in all things thou art more rich and plentiful buto ts (a thous fent fold) tha we can beferne, mep for thy continuall grebneffe fingi laud and craile buto the boly neme, D Gebrhat for ener lineft one in trinitie, and there in unitie, A men.

A godly prayer to be vsed at all times.

OPoft mercifull father, from thy boly fanctuarte looke Downe , I befeech thee, upon me, and behold me, poore wretch. thatam oppreffed with the burthen of baily finne, and bewiapped in the bonds of mortall milery,paifoned in the fetters of oai. Mainall wickenneffe, and having Min mine owne body the traftefrous affections of concupifcence, alway confpiring to betray my Coule into the hands of the ab-Juerfarie: behold me (3 fap) in Withe bright beames of thy louing

Baybush.

youth. 11

tountenance with the eve of mercy, fee into the troubles of my fpirit, and lay thing care buto the mournefull grones of the fame. my foule hewleth out buto theel even frem thegulph of beepe ca lamities, preffes with the pronis fion of temporall things, biged! with the fpightfull watching of & the hatefult, pricked with the prefumptuous pride of worldly brnefites, and wonnded with the benomers part of Adams tranfgreffien : me battailes are full of Difficulties, my victories compaid fed with treafon, and um bwel. lings in the boxes of death. E my God , what felicitte can theil pooreferuant find in this irkefomelife: Da what comfast can bring lufficient reliefe to the afficted fpirit, but the true plat. forme of our pathes, and the (weete frope of our pilgrimage, euen Jelus Chiff thy Dearely beloued foune our faufour. ather. fore I poore finner humbly befeech thee not to tarry long, or Deferre my Delinerance from this wearte fourney. Let not my foule alway be clay with mourning, and my bones wither with anguith, thou Lord halt created 10 me of nothing, and thou gauel me life in my mothers wombe. Thou halt cholen me to be of thine, and thou haft ginen me the boly fpirit the teftimony: D Deare X

13

Bay buth. beare father, let not thy graces! be in me in vaine, let me not bel ouerwhelmed with the iniquities? of this troubleiom: world : butil present me with the ertenbed force of thy right hand, and fauel my foule, D God, my rocke of Grength: Bebold not that which! isamific in me, neither let my finnes and infirmities make leparation betweene thy mercy and meibzine out, og at the leaft wife hold bowne in me the cruell Ring of raging concupilcence, by the increating might of the holy fplrit impreffe in my heart a feare of thy lawes, and instruct me leg to number my daics, that I may applie my felfe wholly to thy fa- U

tutes. Allo (D molt mercifull fa ther) arthe doze of thy mercy is alma es open , and as thou bift muer refute humble fittes of the feruants : beare me . D Lezo . in my carneft petition, for thy little Church of England fet me neuer fee it concerned gaaine with the miffie cloud of beepe ignozance, luffer me neuer to fce thy bely temple and fanctuary defiled with the beattily functition and blafphenions ibolatrie of Antichift: Arike not the lampe out of our! hands in the weath, and fo makel bs go graping in palpable barkeneffe : I mult needs confeffe (D) Deare father) that the multitude ffe ofour finnes (which are growne

Baybush in fuch rigenelle) Due worthilp deferne thy grienous plagues: enen from the higheft to the loweft we haue all goncaftray, and prowdly breaking our allegiance , baue difat eved the precepts. But pet (D mightie Tehouah, who admittelt buftand affes to fprate buto thee) heare the poore ier= nant, I beiechthee, each with the teares of a fortowfull heart. appeale thine anger, hold the beaute rod , Ged not the violl of weath byon us in the furie, let! not the fpirit be mooned with man becaule he is but fleth, soz= rect be not in thise anger , leaft webe confumed and bjought to nothing, but connert bs, D Logo, and we thall be converted, thange Mus, and we thall be changed, for Wibine electslake, D father, fpare this Realme of Gugland. Deferre the day of renenge, and for much more plenteoully poure thy puctions fpirit into the hearts of thy chilozen, which now alreabie feels thy fatherly calling, that they with all fpeede making halt into the binepard, may vaine. fully (weate in bunging, earthing) and priming the trees, to the fucreate of thy bintage, to the glory of thy holy name. Lord heare me I befrech the, and to kindle in the hearts of thy children the lone of Athy law, and zeale of true profettifon, that we may walke together

Baybush. 116 % in all brotherly admonition and Chiffian erhortation that we all Arine to got before others in godly zeale, and flourist in the fenits of perfect faith : That we ble not! our liberty to the infirming of the wrake, but enery one burne in befire to winne a foule buco! thee . Finally, that our Reofalt U goingforward and continuall increase may be to the ftrengthening of the weake and comfort of the ftrong, to the fifting out of Molnes, & defence of the Lainbs, to the thining credite of thy Church, and finall confusion of Antechaift, that to turning from be thy heavy bifpleafire, and unbending the bowe of the weath, RA thou maiest imbrace be in the armes of mercle, where gaining the fruition of thy faueur, in ali patience and thankigining we may expect the day of our liberty, which we hall one bay obtaine Aby the diffolution of this life, and entrance into that unspeakable rea, that Christ our fautour hath purchased and entred into by his pretious blood, to whom with the father and the boly fpirit be all praise and thankelgluing fo zeuer, Amen.

Abcautifull

Godly

Godly meditations to be vsed

Cternall God and heavenly father , whole wildome and power is infinit, and pet whole mercie furmounteth all, 'n whome all creatures haue their being, and from whom all goodneffe floweth as from a fountaine : 3 humbly befecch thee gine eare bn. to the groning requelts of my fpirit,and pitriethe falt ftreames that (for the fight and fence of mine owne infiemities) flow from the imparts of my confirming heart. And alfo I afke nothing but that which foundeth to the gloze glosy of thy holy name, and to the credit of thy Church: thew thy felfe, D father as willing as able, that my spirit being refrectively, and my heart receiving comploted, I may boldfast the recording of my hope, with a sound and second conscience to the end.

Against temptation.

Thou maker of heaven and earth, deliner me from the continuall and most dangerous assaults of Gathan, who principle layeth baites, and secretly diggeth pittes for my soule, leaving nothing duattempted that might workemy destruction, and I feeling.

Baybush. I 18
ling my selfe nothing but a masse of instrmities, and ready to be cline at enery froke that he giveth, cannot but misrust my selfe altogether, and wholly flying but othe sea of thy mercie, power and wisebome, doe befeech the vuccesant supplie of thy gists, in the continuall accesse of thy holy spirit, that in the throng of templations I may be delivered and fland victorer in Jesus Christ.

For patience.

Opod louing Lord luffer me not to be tempted about my might: neither by affliction of badic of louis, neither by whatles ener ener earthly penurie the enemie would preffe ms with, but even in the middell grauntime patience to fuffer thy fatherly tryals thankefully and without all grudging, as worthily may befreeme the childe of to louing and mercifulla father.

For increase offsith.

Kind, increater of al makind, increate my faith, and purge me of unbeliefe, that I alway calling to mind thy wonderfull louing worke of our redemption, may with all bolonesse of spirit in the blood of Relus Chilk to apply thy comfortable promise

Baybush. 1196 promises to the saluing of mplaces, as that in viing of the same preticus cyleof thy grace, I may alwayes feare to make wall thereof.

For fanctification.

Theu mightic God of Israell, graunt me such an boderstanding hearr, and so instruct any sences to be Audious and capable of thy heavenly meteries, that according to the right ruland perfect platforms of thy prounder direction. I may love in all singlenesse and humilitie of heart, as a feeling number of Chist Jelus, suffer in him mutually A beautifull tually and fructifie in all aboundance of godly life to thy honoz.

For temporall benefits.

of ather of all mercies to most oberate thy mercifull hand in bleffing me with the benefits of this temporall maintenance that neither through aboundance old A ban may fet by his feather, nor yet thy vertues be in me through fearcity obscured.

Forthankfulnesse.

Thou comforter of the comfortleffe, rend out of my heart all flethly thornes and impediments, Baybush. 120
ments, that would at any time incline me the forget thy gwonesse, or neglect to sever thee, and give me a heart alwaies affected to how nour thee, a minde ever moditating byon thy mercy, and aspirit burning with reale of the worthly, that baily I may pay my bowes but o thee, and speake to thy praise in the minit of the congregation.

For mortification and refolution.

O Post bounteous Sod, so mottifie old Adam in my mentbers, and redouble the frength of the timer man, that despising

this momentanous life , I may not flicke in the loy of any earth-Typleafure, or veeto my felfe to the belight of this prefent life, but alway refuting to entenour my felfe in an vncertaine bolpinge, and knowing that I sm here but as a pilerim, I may fhun my acquaintance with all things of fickle ftap, and firemy heart, mp folace and belight, bpen the hope of beholding the maieftie and beautie of thy glorie euen asitis, where my toy hall be full , and nothing wanting for ever : which toyes , as my spirit groneth to fee, fo, D Lord I befrech thee with expedition finish thy good workes in me, and fhartly bring Baybush. 121 to an end my socrowfull daies,
that my soule as a done may once takeher flight from this earthly tabernacle, and being received in to the bosomer fithy deare sonne, may be placed in that most happy rest which he hath purchased for the same, with the price of his most pretious blood, to whom with thee, O father, and the enertailing comforter be all praise, don minten and power enermore ascribed, Amen.

A prayer against the feare of death,

Offernall Cod, my melt loumg and mercifall father, I

praife and glorifie thee enen from the bepth of my infirme beart, for all the benefites and riches of thy goodneffe bestowed vonme, from the beginning of my life bute this !! prefent time : but efpecially for the bleffings of my election, redemption, vocation, iuftificatien and fanctification in Jeing Chaift, in all which thou hall in its part taken me out of this world. and given me the pleage of the boto fpirit, which witneffeth bnto my fpirit that I am thy childe, ! thou haft (I fay) giuen me the carnell peny of my falgation, and whileft 3 was pet thine enemie, halt reconcileb me in Chaift : pca, thou tookelt me ont of the blinde Bungeon

Baybush, bungeon of carelelle ignorance. to fecue thee in fimplfrity, to fearel theein love, and to call upon thee in fpirit and truth, and in all thefeal (mott louing faiher) halt theum mabe me proceed and prefit bate this prefent bay, wherein happito the good pleafure frimeth to ineline me towar de the greatel be-A neff that I ener pet taffes, that ff is, whelly to free me from all the miferite ofthis prefent Ite. and to bling me to that heartenly liberty where my ion hall be full, and no till of mirture & with bitterneffe. Row therefore beare father, fer Jeine Chift his lake, I beferth thee, refpect me the buwarthy feruant, a as all

S 2

times 16

times of my life thou half fatherly febbe, nouriges, preferued, and Defended me, Co now in my laft need wifit and regard me : that as the enemy will now with all rage bend his forcean inft me , fo thou withthe fatherly and mighty protettien by the boly fpirit wile comfort me and with the comfortable prefence of thy maieffie Attengthen me, that my auth nill increasing . with armed patience I man defpile the fe re of this bodies beath, knowing that it is the briausidable way that thy good pleasure hath appointed to decawayour mortalitie, and to bring us those iopes, which thy buspeakable prouidence hath oadained !

Baybuth. 123 oadeined bs. buto, without all ne. ferningon eur garts : teach me new therefore to to number my daies, that I may apply my heart onto the bullome : teach me (imeet Lord) as herctofore to line , fo now to frame to bieto the gloze, whereunto 3, poore wretch , bor with afighing heart befeech thee neuer to foglake me with the holy spicit, but that mine buberftanding may alway belightened with the feeling of mine owne infirmities, fo that in all perfert humilitie I may fie from the mind of all earthly fay, and cleaning infererably to the promifes, and apprehending myl faluation with fure hope, 3 may erpect the dissolution : fo behol. ding thy maieftie with the cleare eyes of my faith, I may grow, as by begrees weaker in boby, fo fuller and ftronger in the fpiritnall body or inner man : fo that when the laft breath bath paffed, my foure may toyfully respire the triumphant odonrs of an endleffe tife, in the bolome of Abzaham with all thy faints: whereto baften me, D beare louing father, enen for Jelus Chift bis lake our fantour, to whome with thee and the boly Chott be all power, glozy, and bominion, now and for euer. Amen.

A

A prayer to be faid in affliction.

Theu onely wife God, and moft fouing and mercifulifa- IC ther, I the buwoathe feruant nee! humbly befrech thee to look bown from beanen, and beholde the wounded beert of bim whome thon hall Gricken and vilited, according to the good plealure of thy will, and because man in bis owne nature is nothing but blindneffe and folly before thee, and therefore cannot poffib'y conceine rightly of the thinges that are about, it may therefore please thee accepding to the wonted mercy towards me, to rench and refreth the fpirit in the feruant, that the same instructing my heart in true wilcome, and feare of thee, whereby I may willingly and obediently andie thy commaundements , and errerife my felfe in thy Statutes , I may come to the understanding of mine owne enile, and feele the cause of thy scourge, that so my wound being laid open to mine epes , I may beferre no time to frekethefalue to heale it : Doy! good God heare the voice of the fernant that crierb unto thee, confider my complaints, and weigh mine inward wo conceined through hate of mine owne infirmities.

Baybush. mities, for I flie from my felfe as from an buwalled caffe, and I feare all my footings as thench Twalked on thornes. D Lord therefore beale not with me in the difflealure, neither let my finnes feparate thy fanour from me, but quicken me in my afflirtions, and make me ware wifer by the punifiments, gine meluch a feeling of my infirmities , and fo perfect a perfeuerance of my great negligences in ferning of thee, as that I may wholly bifpole my lette to a centrary order and thereunts to towne the enereale of the grace and arength. ning fpirit, as 3 may be able thereby to perfourme my race in that good way, which thy goodneffe bath mooned me te. And that I may not be a vaine beholder of rhy workes, a momentaneous stewer of thy graces , but bilf. mently noting the effectualt wor. king of the wifdome, and making nue obleruations of thy profitable erercifes in thy children, 3 may locke them in the clofet of me beart, and make foge of them for mine owne vies in the time of my triall: in which times alfo. D mercifull father be neere onto me with the forfull countenance. and oven my eies of faith to behold thy love, fo that I be not too much fhakenby the enemies affaults , but may be furniched

Baybush. 126 from thee, both with abilitie, conftancie, and patience, to give himi both his Daily and finall repullel and ouerthrow, which that I may boe to the greater credit of thy Church, and increase of the hingdome : make, D (weete Lord (now and the rather forthat 3 haue had titall of my enemy bis fleightsalready) me thy fernant to arife out of all the fathers of floth, and nener to truft bereafter to the trecherie of the enemy, but to fant warily bpon my guard, and neuer to bifcend from the watchtower of my bealth, but there night and day to ble the counfell of thy fpirit, and to erercife my felle in the fpirituall weapone of my faluation, that when 3 hante fpent my pouthfuil baies in the vigilant watch of my charge, as the merce and louing kindnes mall inable me, when thy fonne our Generali fall come to takello faccount, I may be indued with the vales of reft, which he hath purchased for me with the price Mofbis moft pretious blood, a receine at his hands the priniledged rod of liberty for ener. The lone of Mour good Godthat created be, the Warace of our Lord Jelus who hath Fredeemed be, and the affidant fel. lowfip of the boyy Choft, who Abath fanctified be, gouerne and Secontinue with be enenall the Ildrael for ener.

Before

Before we receive the I ords supper, it shall be profitable thus to meditate.

A II the righteouinelle mat may rife unto man, or can be in ve, we baue it neither from the Caft, not from the Wieft , butfrom the & body of Chaift , neither is there in the world any other lanctification , fo that all we that be bere this day, and all people els of the world, except we know perfect To manhood, and our owne natureto be really united to the person of the fonne of Bed, who hath fanctified himfe fe for bs , there is no fanctification for be bnber beaue. Cutn

Enen as our hands and armes and other membergare not nourithed but onely by the meat recei. nebby the bear, fo our fpfritu. all meate of rightcoulneffe ann It'e is not given be but from our beab Jelus Chrift. And as the beines are meanes by which nourimment is conueighed to euery part, fo faith is the meanes by which we reteine from Chift all that is healthfall buto bs. And as by toyets and finewes our members are realle knit and made a body buto the head, fo really, truly, and indeede, by one fpirit webeknit bnto Chaift, as perfectly and fubftantially made AC one with him, as eur members f

Baybufh. are one with our head.

128

A praier before the receiving of the Lords supper.

O Almighty Och and my moft mer cifull father , in wonderfull mercy (Jacknowledge) ich bath pleafes thee to purge me untworthy wretch by the bloody pattion of thy fonne from all my finnes, to have adopted me thy chilo , and g uen me the earneft of my fatuation, touching my heart with an infallible feeling of thy mercies, and feiled confi-Dence in thy promifes: in the foyfull commemoration of which? the buluenkeable bleffings , me fon!e Al

foule is now thirftingly entres into thine house, to take the whalefome cup of falnation, and to call boon thy holy name, gine me not therefore, D Loid, awife and bnderstanding heart, that I mayed. ceine rightly of thy facred mylte. ries, Difcerne them feeretly , & receine them effectually , to the perfect confummation and finibing of that happy building which thy worthramones ha h begun in me, rea untill & become to the meafure of the age and fulneffe of my Lo Band Santour Telus Chaift. bnto whom, with thee, D father, and the boly Shoft, be all power and to ainion for euer, Amen.

Bay bufh. of my bealth in this life, (D. (wrete Lord) I take no care, fol that the good pleafure be therein fulfilled, for if thou wilt I liue and recover of this my bodely infirmitie. I baue fift canle to bell thankefull bnto thee therefore :y and if thy wilcome hath no to Determined to fine in me thefel Daies of finne, & haue Donble canfe to poure forth the traves of & meling heart fartop, not becanfe I would teans thife baisel of paincand forrow (which mp) Anneten ihoufand times bouble? beferneth) but that I would ceafe to Dipleale fo Dearea Lord, and lowing a father, and that being transported into that hea-E 2

A beautifull nenty life of thy immortalt chil-Dien , I may praile and ferue theek in that iweet focietie of Angels, where the burthen of this fleft Mall find no place to encumber mefoz euer. Thither therefoze, D father, ifthy wiforme haue fo Determined, fpeedily conduct me: in the meane time make, that this my bodily affliction may conduce to the glozy on earth, and my faluation in bequen, by the conduct of thy boly fpirit, through Telus Chaiff my onely advocate and mediatour, Amen.

Godly

Godly petitions to be vied of euery Christian,

OMy God, accept thy most bus worthis fernant here humbly falling downe before thee!, I acknowledge thy great mercies, and (in famby fest) the extended goodneffe towards me , pet in feare of mine owne frailety, 3 eftfoones prefent my felte before the maieffie, to looke fauourably on me alwaits , and to oven mine eyes more clearely to fee thy maieftie, forthelittle taft that thon haft ginen me , hath perlmabed! mealreaniethat thou art freet, yea and the mozethat I Difcerne @: 2

thy fweetneffe, the more I fee allo mp bncleanneffe : the knowleage of thee therefore (I confeste) it the leader to faluation, for the confideration of thy greatneffe, maketh me befpilemy baleneffe, and thy puritie my filthineffe, and thy wonderfull goodneste my monftrous unworthineffe. Forgiue me then, D Lord, my finnes, and let them not hold backe thy bounteous hand , now begunne! to be opened towards mee, (3 fay begun, my Lord , because my felfe hath but now begun to fee; it :) give mea wife underfanbing heart, and fend me knote. ledge from aboue: Daine from my mind the mittes of flethly Darkeneffe.

Baybush. neffe, and make me capable of the beauenly riches, fill my mouth with good things, for I willepen it to receine of thy bleffings. Let me not die, but line and Declare the prailes of my Lord. With haft thon made me, but co glozifie thee? Wilhy haft thou en. lightned me, butto lout thee? yea, why haft theu redeemed me, but to fant me ? And for what caufe balt thoit farctified mp beart but'to make me fit for thole good things that theu purpofett To tobeftow ponme : D imeete. father, thy loue is notto be erpreffed: Pow therefere goe forward, and ceale not with the poore fernant, performe that good building which the foirit hath begun in me, thou haft made! me thirft for the righteouineffe, replenify now therefore my heart with gladneffe, make my fleth to banifb , and the new Abam to rife by in Grenath, that I may be different in my water, and fand in the continuall fearch of thy indgements. And when thy mer. Mi cie thus hath enlarged me, as a full cloub, fo thall I beclare thy kindneffe, and asthe fauour of Mparhe, fo mall mo lippes fend by thy praifes. Bleffet be the Lo D who ha'b hinde thele things from the wife of the world, and renealed the way of righteoufnelle onto the fimple , Lord I thy fo handmaid &

Baybush. handmaid of fonne of thy handmaid will attend bpon thy will. and repole my felfe under the fanow of the wings both day and H night. Thou art my wilbome, mp pewer,my beautie, my arength, my riches, my glozy, my king, my God, and my falnation, The grace? of Southe father, the peace of Chaift Jefus our faufour through the comfortable fellewihip of the boly Spirit, be with me, preferue & keepe me this Day, this night, and euermo, e, Amen.

A godly prayer to be faid at all times.

Cternall God and molt mightie King of maieftie bow can I bide my felfe fro the prefence, or with what cloake or pretence might 3 couer my thame from the piercing fight of thine eve, fince I have nothing, D Lozd, but a guiltie confcience , intollers bly oppreffed with the beanie burthen of finne, by which I antalmeft britten to the bore of Defpaire, if thy mightie hand flay me not, I fall, and if the wishome prouide net for me, I am alwaies in daunger. The fegrowes of mp

Bay bush. beart are enlarged , for my bates confume in finne , and the graueff gapeth to receine me, before Il gainethe gift of lone: Anrigh. teoufnefferaigneth as a king in this my corruptible body, and concupilcence Deceineth mp fight till The entraged : berily when I come to fight, I wonder that thou diddeft not beftiop me, faying, D Lord, who is able to nums, ber his finnes , or what fonte is righteous in thy fight ? man Artie with God? who can fay 3 will be faned, fiththon art inf? only bidded not thou cut my thien whileft I pronoked thee? why divoeff not thou fend me telle the inhertrance of the wicken, but thus thou pleft to comfort thy children in their great necelfitie, and my foule had perifted but for this reliefe long agoe. therefore crie I bnto thee from the depth of my beart : take me notaway, D God , inmy finnes. neitherlet me reape the postion of the wicken : thou halt wewen methedayes of comfort, and offren Delinered my foule from the Lion. And because thou in thy great mercie balt let me fee this goodneffe, and atto made me to retopce therin, increasing light af. ter abarkenelle, and boubling lop to my paine I will neuer ceafe & D Deare father to call bpon thee ! Vin my afflictions, and to looke for Baybush. 135 the good houre in my baunger, increale my faith, and ittle me in the knowledge of the will: Plenteoully bleffeme with thy grace, and let the fpirit bemy protectourifor mifery DLord,is threatened buto thy children, and ruine to the faith of the younglings, no place is fafe from the rage of thy abuerfaries , but thou art the God of might, and haft power to preferne our peace. Db if I might alke the beath of this old Adam, fo that all concupit. To cence might banify as a Imoake, then fare (far I) I would whotlybe exercised in the law of my God , and at all times would I fing praifes onto bis name, but I will not prefume about thy Mernant Baul, whom the wifsome Vithus aufwered, App graceis fufficient for thee: thus will 3 be-Mecch thee whi's Time, that this I baline of the grace may alwaies be pouredfrei into my wounds, ethat euen in my infirmities 3 Mmay euer gaine a Donble retoy. Meing, and that the moft lebtill al. Maults of the aduccfarie map alwalesfall out to be bis fon'eft Mfaile, and my weakeneffe ap wift. Nome by therenuing of the grace (To and enlighening my fpirit with the lweete ba'me of thy loung countenance, through thy most tender mercle in thepurchale of it thy beloned fonne our deare CaBaybush. 136 nione Chief Jesu, unto whom with the eard the holy spirit be all power and dominion so enermore, Amen.

A prayer for women with child.

Eternall God, and most merciful father, who not withstanding my manifold and gricuous offences hast of thy gratious goodnesse, in marriage made me fruitsell, which I take as thy great blessings and benefits bestowed upon me, besething thee now most humbly to helpe me thy poose landmaisen in thesegrienous paines of traville and chilabirth. Thou haft wil. led vs to call vyonthee in all our neens and neceffities, and hall promifed in the great mercies neuer to fatte them that call byon thee : helpe me now, wetched finner, in thefe intollerable paine, that I may ouercome them with patience, and euermore praile the mateltie. Comfort me with thy holy fpirit, that I finkenot bu-Der this beaute burthen. And as gratioufly thou haft bleffen mel hitherto from time to time in gill uing me children , fo mercifully fanctific them to thy bie, and increase of the congregation. And as beriby I feele thy heaufe indgements byon me for finne, Bayboth. in feeling thofe grienous vaines. and am put in minde of the old offebebiente of our parents a-Dam and Cue, (the very cause of thefe punifiments) lighting iuftly toon me , being a banneh (C of that porfoned flocke. Go D bearefather, let me feele ageine thy merip, who through the beloned Sonne haft wjought mp ! Deliverance from the punishment of that D. lebeblence to wit, from fune Death and pamnation , fo that new irp transgrellions are remocurpfrimme, the bamnable! fine of my filthir concupilience by nature is turned into a fantti-f fic bleffing, and we beth mibe beires of everlafting glegle, belpe metherefore, D Gob of comfort, and gine me late belinerance, that I may bedicate that which thou! batt giuen me wholip to the fernice. I know Lezdthat as many as thou halt taken to thy felfe, " to them thou haft given this honour, that they be made thy chil. ben and beleeners of thy name, which are not begotten of blood, nos of the intt of the fle &, nosof the Beffre of man, but ofthy felfe. whom thou fathionest according te the will. Thou therefore which ! haft viomifed not onely to be my Cod, but the Ged of my frebe. fealethis affarance of the election in this fenit of my wombe , to Athe glosy of thy name, mine swne

Baybush. 138 comfort and the benefite of thy thurch. Grant these things, D father for Jelus Christ his take, to whom with thee and the holy Chost beall benour and glorie, Amen.

A prayer made for the Church and all the estates thereof.

I. F.

Ped Jelus Chelit lonne of the living God, who was crucified for anchus, and did rife againe for our instification, and altending by to beauen, raignest now at the right hand of thy father, with full power and authorist ruling and disposing all things

according to their owne gratious and glosieus purpole, we finfult creatures, and pet feruante and members of the church , Doc profrateour felues , and our pany-Hersbeforethy imperiall matellie, Mauing no other patron nos ad. quocate to fpeed our futes, or to refort bato, but thee alone, befee-Sching the goodnesse to be good to The poore church mittant here in f this wetched earth, fometimes a rich church, a large church , an b. Minimerfall church, fpread farre and wide through the whole compaffe of the earth , now Difuen into a marrow corner of the world, and tach much need of thy gratious helpe. firft the Eucke with his fmorb, Baybush. fword, what lande, nations and countries , what empites, king. bomes and proninces, with cities mnumerable, hath be woon , not from va, but from thee: where thy name was woont to be inmocated, the mord preached the lacraments administred : there now raigneth batbarous Bahomet, with his filthie Glegan. The flourifing churches in Sua, the Irarned churches of Grecia. the manifold churches in Afrita, which were woone to ferne thee, now are gone from thee. The feauen churches of Afia, with their candlestickes (whom then! biddeft fo well forewarne) are now remoonen. All the churches where thy biligent apoffle Saint Daule, the Apoffle Peter, and John aus other Apoffles fo la. bestoully tranelled, preaching and writing to plant thy Golpell, are new gone from the golpell. Inthe kingdome of Dygia , Paleftina, Arabia, Berfia , in all Armenia, and the Empire of Capadocia, through the whole compaffe of Alia, with Egypt and Africa alto unleffe amongit the far Etbio. pians fome old fteps of Chiffia. nitie peraduenture pet Doe temaine) either elle all Afia, and Africa thy church bath not one foot of free land, but all is turnebeltherto inficelitie oz to captinitie, whatfoeuer pertaineth to thee &

Baybush. 140 the thee. And if Asia and Africa only decaied, the decay were great, but yet thedefection were not so wniversall. Sow in Europe a great part also is shrunke from thy Church. All Thacia with the Empire of Constantinople, al Grecia, Epirus, Illyricum and now of late al the kingdomes almost of Hungaria, with much of Austria, with lamentable slaughter of Christian blood, is wasted and aliberome Turkes.

Only a little angle of the Ment partes pet remaineth in some profession of thy name. But there alacke commeth another mischiefe as great or greater than the other. For the Turke with his liver (word is not fo cruell, but the Bi. thop of Rome on the other five iamore fiecce & bitter againa bs. Aring to his Bistops to burne us, his confederates to confpireour beffruction , fetting kings a aninft their Inbieces, and fuhiects vill yally to rebell a rainft their Binces , and all for thy name. Such Diffention and hoft lity Sathan bath fet amongft bs. that Enckes be not more egemies to Christians, than Chri-Rians to Christians & Papists to proteffants; praproteffints with protestants Doe not agree, but fall out for trifles. Bo that the ponte little flacke of thy church, Diffrefled on enery fine, bath neither reft withBaybush. 141 without nex peace within, no place almost in the world where to abide, but many crie now from the earth, enen as thene owne renerence cried once from the crosses

By God, why hast thou sociaken me?

Amongst vs Englishmen here in England, after so great storms of persecution, and cruell murther of so many Partyrs, it hath pleased thy grace to give vs there. Action naises, which yet we eiting, and beseeth thy mercifull goodnesse still they may continue. But here also alacke what should we say? So many enemies we have that enute at this rest and tranquilitie, and doe what they can to pitturbe it. They which bea Afriends, and I wers of the bifton of Rome . although they eare the fat of the land, and hauethe beft paeferments and offices , and line moft at eafe and aile nothing: pet are they not therewith content. They grudge, they mutter and murmure, they confpire and take on againft bs. It fretteth them that we live by them or with? them , and cannot abive that we fould mate the bare breathing of the aire, when they have all the mofflibertie of the land. And albeit the fingular goodneffe bath gitten them a King, fo calate, fo patient, fo mercifull, moze like a naturall father than a Brince

Baybuth. to generne ouer them, fuch as neither they nos their anceftoss Reuer read of in the Stories of this land before : pet all this will not Calmie them , their buquiet fpirit isnot yet content, they repine and rebell, and urebes would haue with the frogs of Clopea Cits. Minta, au Italian Granger , the Bithop of Rome , to play Reg ouer them, and care not if all the world were fet on fire, fo they with Atheir Italian Lord might raigne Offalone. So fond are we English- IR men of ftrange & forraine things: fo bnaturall to our felues: fo greenie of newfangled nouelties, Inever contented with any fate long to continue, bett neuer fo good: and furthermore to cenell one to another, that we think cour life buquiet, whether to be leafened with the blood of other. For that is their hope, that is their golden day, their day of Jubiley which they thirlt for to much not to have the Lord to come in the clouds, but to have our bloud and to fuill our lives.

That, that is it which they would have, and long fince would have had their wils upon us, had not thy gratious pittie and mercie ratica up to be this our mercifull King, thy feruant James, somewhat to flay their fucic. For whom as me most condiguly give the most heartie thankes.

Baybush. thanker, fo likewife we beleich thy heavenly Maieftie, that as thou halt ginen him bato be , aud half from many panngers preferued him to the comfort of the fer-is nants : fo now in his royall effate fie may continually be pieferued not onely from their hands but from all malignant benifes, C wiought attemptet, or conceined of the enemies, both ghoffly and! bodily againft him. In this bis gonerument be his conernour we tefeeth thee: So fell bis Daiettie well gouerne be, if firft he be gouernes by thee. Bolt blie his raigne with many baies, and his yeares with much felicitie, with aboundance of peace, and life !! ghoffly: A ghoffly: that he with his Braunthes may flurish in this land, butill the consummation of the world.

And because no government can long kand without good counsell, neither ean any counsell be good, except it be prospered by thee, bleke therefore, we believed thee, both his maiestie, and his honourable counsell, that both they rightly may understand what is to be done, and he acceptingly may accomplish that they not counsell, to thy glory and furtherance of thy Gospell, and publicke wealth of this realme.

In generall, give to all the prople and the whole face of this Realme

Bay bufh. Realme fuch brotherly unitie in knowledge ofthy truth, and fach obedience to their fuperiours, as they neither prouekt the fcourge of Gob againft them , nos the Princes (word to be brawne againft his will out of the fcabart oflong lufferance, where it bath beene long bio , efpertally gine the golpell long continuance amongt bs. And ifour finnes baue befer. ued the contrarie, graunt we befeech thee with an earnest repentance of that which is paft, to ioine a beartie purpole of amendment to come.

FINIS.

